FIRST SCHEDULE

(Section 5)

Constitution and Procedure of the Advisory Committee

1. The Advisory Committee shall consist of not less than seven members appointed by the Prime Minister, so, however, that two shall be Senators nominated by the Senate and two shall be members of the House of Representatives nominated by that House.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule the appointment of a member of the Advisory Committee shall be for a period not exceeding three years, and such member shall be eligible for re-appointment.

3. The Prime Minister shall appoint a chairman of the Advisory Committee from amongst the members thereof.

4. In the case of the absence or inability to act of any member the Prime Minister may appoint any person to act temporarily in the place of such member.

5. (1) Any member of the Advisory Committee, other than the chairman, may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Prime Minister and transmitted through the chairman, and from the date of the receipt by the Prime Minister of such instrument such member shall cease to be a member of the Advisory Committee.

(2) The chairman may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Prime Minister and such resignation shall take effect as from the date of the receipt of such instrument by the Prime Minister.

6. If any member of the Advisory Committee who was nominated by the Senate or the House of Representatives ceases to be a member of the Senate or the House of Representatives, as the case may be, he shall cease to be a member of the Advisory Committee.

7. The Prime Minister may at any time revoke the appointment of any member of the Advisory Committee if he thinks it expedient so to do.

8. If any vacancy occurs in the membership of the Advisory Committee such vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of another member who shall, subject to the provisions of this Schedule, hold office for the remainder of the period for which the previous member was appointed, so, however, that such appointment shall be made in the same manner and from the same category of persons, if any, as the appointment of the previous member.

9. The names of all members of the Advisory Committee as first constituted and every change in the membership thereof shall be published in the Gazette.

NATIONAL HONOURS AND AWARDS

10. The validity of the proceedings of the Advisory Committee shall not be affected by any vacancy amongst the members thereof or by any defect in the appointment of a member thereof.

11. The Advisory Committee shall meet at such times as may be convenient or expedient for the transaction of business, and at such places as it may deem fit.

12. The chairman shall preside at meetings of the Advisory Committee and in the case of his absence from any meeting the members present shall elect one from amongst their number to preside at that meeting.

13. The decisions of the Advisory Committee shall be by a majority of votes of the members present and voting and, in addition to an original vote, the chairman or any other person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in any case in which the voting is equal.

14. The quorum of the Advisory Committee shall be five members thereof.

15. Minutes in proper form shall be kept of the proceedings of the Advisory Committee.

16. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule the Advisory Committee shall have power to regulate its own proceedings, and may delegate to any member or committee thereof the power and authority to carry out on behalf of the Advisory Committee such duties as the Advisory Committee may determine.

17. Any expenses incurred by the chairman and other members of the Advisory Committee in the performance of their duties shall be paid out of moneys provided for the purpose by Parliament.

18. The office of chairman or member of the Advisory Committee shall not be a public office for the purpose of Chapter V of the Constitution of Jamaica.
