(2) The provisions of the First Schedule shall have effect as to the constitution of the Commission and otherwise in relation thereto.

First Schedule.

4.—(1) The functions of the Commission shall be—

(a) to carry out such investigations in relation to the prices of goods as the Minister may from time to time require;

Functions of the Commission.
 28/1970
 S.3.

- (b) to consider any request made to the Minister for the increase of any prices which are controlled under this Act and make recommendations in connection with such request to the Minister;
- (c) to investigate allegations of profiteering in relation to the sale of goods of any class or description and make such report and recommendations in connection therewith as it thinks fit to the Minister;
- (d) to carry out, on its own initiative, such other investigations in relation to the prices and availability of goods of any class or description as it thinks fit and make such report and recommendations as it thinks fit to the Minister;
- (e) to collect, compile and analyse information in relation to wages and other conditions of employment in any trade or business.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Commission may, for the purpose of exercising or discharging any of its functions under this Act, do anything and enter into any transaction which, in the opinion of the Commission, is necessary to ensure the proper exercise or discharge of its functions (including any function delegated to it under section 12).

(3) The functions of the Commission specified in paragraphs (a), (c) and (d) of subsection (1) may be exercised or discharged in respect of goods referred to in subsection (2) of section 8 as well as in respect of any other goods.

5. The funds and resources of the commission shall consist of—

- (a) such moneys as may from time to time be placed at its disposition for the purposes of this Act by Parliament;
- (b) all other moneys and other property which may in any manner become payable to, or vested in the Commission in respect of any matter incidental to its functions.

- (d) the Coconut Industry Control Act;
- (e) the Coffee Industry Regulation Act;
- (f) the Cocoa Industry Board Act;
- (g) the Banana Board Act.

(3) The Minister may by order establish, in respect of any goods specified in the order, being goods for which prices have not been fixed under this Act or under any other enactment, a pricing code setting out—

13/1976
S. 3(b).

- (a) guidance as to the principles and procedure which persons offering those goods for sale shall follow in determining or increasing the price thereof;
- (b) the circumstances in which the Commission may oppose or approve any proposal to increase the price of those goods, and the effect of that opposition or approval;

- (c) the consequences (including the penalty referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 10) of failure to comply with the principles and procedures mentioned in paragraph (a).

Power to authorize purchase, sale, etc., of goods.
28/1963
S. 3.

9. So far as it appears to the Minister necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act, he may by order authorize such person as may be designated in the order to purchase, acquire, sell or otherwise dispose of, on behalf of the Government, such goods as may be specified in the order, and make such provision for such supplementary and incidental matters as may be necessary for the purposes thereof.

Supplementary provisions as to orders.

10.—(1) An order made by the Minister under the provisions of section 8—

(a) may provide that persons carrying on or employed in connection with any trade or business shall produce to the Minister, or any person authorized in that behalf by the Minister, such books, accounts or other documents relating to their trade or business as the Minister may require and that such persons shall furnish to the Minister, such estimates, returns or information as the Minister may from time to time require; and

(b) may provide for such supplementary and incidental matters as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the order including in particular the entering and inspection of premises to which the order relates by any person specified in the order with a view to securing compliance therewith; and

(c) notwithstanding anything contained in the Interpretation Act, may provide that, subject to affirmative resolution, in respect of any breach of the provisions of the order, other than a breach to which subsection (2) refers, that the offender shall be liable on summary conviction thereof before a Resident Magistrate to such fine not exceeding two million dollars or to such term of imprisonment with or without hard labour not

11/2009
S. 2(b)(i).

11/2009
S. 2(b)(ii).

exceeding two years as may be prescribed therein.

11/2009
S. 2 (b)(ii).

(2) Where under any such order the importation of goods or of any class or description of goods, from any country is prohibited except under the authority of a licence granted by the Minister, any goods imported in breach of such prohibition shall be deemed to be prohibited goods within the meaning of the Customs Act, which have been imported contrary to the prohibition against their importation, and the provisions of section 210 of the said Act shall apply accordingly.

11.—(1) Where an order made by the Minister under the provisions of section 8 prohibits the importation or exportation of any goods except under the authority of a licence granted by the Minister, the Minister may, subject to the provisions of this section, grant or withhold licences for the importation or, as the case may be, exportation of such goods.

Grant of import and export licences.

(2) A licence granted under this section—

- (a) may be either general or limited to a specified person; and
- (b) may be absolute or conditional; and
- (c) may be limited so as to expire on a specified date unless renewed; and
- (d) shall be revoked by the Minister whenever it appears to him that it is in the public interest that such licence should be revoked.

12.—(1) The Minister may delegate to the Commission, or the Trade Administrator or any other public officer such of the functions of the Minister under this Act as he may specify.

Delegation of functions.
28/1970
S. 5.

(2) A delegation under this section—

- (a) may be made subject to such terms and conditions as the Minister thinks fit;
- (b) may at any time be revoked by the Minister;
- (c) while in force shall not prevent the discharge by the Minister of any function thereby delegated.

Offences.

13.—(1) Any person who—

- (a) contravenes or fails to comply with any term, condition, or restriction of, or subject to which, any licence is granted under section 11; or
- (b) in or in connection with any book, account or other document or any estimate, return or information which he is required to produce or furnish by virtue of any order made under this Act, wilfully or recklessly gives any false or misleading information or makes any false or misleading statement; or
- (c) assaults or obstructs any person duly authorized by an order made by the Minister under this Act to enter or inspect any premises while such person is acting in the execution of his duty under this Act, shall be guilty of an offence and on summary conviction thereof before a Resident Magistrate shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two million dollars and in default of payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding two years.

11/2009
S. 3 (a)(b).

(2) Where a person convicted of an offence under subsection (1) or of a breach of any order made under this Act is a body corporate every person who at the time of the commission of the offence or breach was a director or officer of the body corporate shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence or breach unless he proves that it was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission thereof.

(3) Where a person has been convicted of any such offence or breach the court before whom he is convicted may make such order as to the forfeiture or disposal of any goods in relation to which the offence or breach was committed as the court thinks fit:

Provided that where the court is satisfied that a person accused of any such offence has absconded or, after due enquiry, cannot be found in Jamaica, the court, if satisfied, after such investigation as it thinks fit, that any goods connected with the alleged offence were imported into the Island, or knowingly acquired, in contravention of this Act, may direct the forfeiture or disposal of such goods as could have been forfeited or disposed of under this Act if that person had been found guilty of the offence of which he is accused.

(4) Any person who attempts to commit, or conspires with any other person to commit, or does any act preparatory to, or in any way aids and abets the commission of an offence under subsection (1) (a), shall be guilty of an offence punishable in like manner as the said offence and the provisions of subsection (3) shall apply in the case of an offence under this subsection as it applies in the case of an offence under subsection (1) (a).

14.—(1) No person who obtains information by virtue of the provisions of this Act or of any order made thereunder shall disclose that information otherwise than in the discharge of his functions under this Act or under any such order, or for the purposes of any criminal proceedings.

Restriction
on disclosure of information.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and on summary conviction thereof before a Resident Magistrate shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one million dollars and in default of payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding twelve months.
