a married woman unless she shall be entitled to the land for her separate use or has a power to appoint the same, or unless her husband shall consent thereto and the application shall be acknowledged by her in the same manner as any deed or other instrument is at the date of the commencement of this Act required to be acknowledged by a married woman:

Provided also, that the attorney of any corporation howsoever and wheresoever incorporated, whether already constituted or hereafter to be constituted, appointed under a seal purporting to be the common seal of the corporation, may make such application for or on behalf of the corporation of which he is the attorney, and may make the requisite declaration to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, and may subscribe the application in his own name.

29. Every such application shall be accompanied by the deeds and documents or other evidence that the applicant relies on in support of his title, and by an affidavit containing such particulars as may be prescribed, and by the fees set forth in the Eighteenth Schedule as payable on making application under this Act, and by a certificate from the proper officer that all quit rents and property tax affecting the land have been paid up to the date of the application, and by a receipt or receipts from the proper officer showing that all succession duties that have become payable in respect of the land have been paid:

Provided that if any such deed or documents are recorded it shall be sufficient for the applicant to give references to the same. The applicant may, if he conceives himself entitled to a qualified title only, state in his application the nature of the qualification subject to which he conceives himself entitled.

30. A person applying to have any land brought under the operation of this Act shall describe and identify the land in one or other of the following ways—

(a) by plat or diagram;
(b) by metes and bounds.

31. The Registrar shall submit such application, together with the deeds, documents or other evidence as aforesaid, to one of the Referees for his direction; and if the Referee shall, on consideration of the deeds, documents or other evidence aforesaid, be of opinion that the applicant is a person entitled to make application under this Act, and that he is in possession by himself or a tenant of the land described or identified in the application and that he would be entitled to maintain and defend such possession against any other person claiming the same or any part thereof, he shall provisionally approve the registration of the title of the applicant or his nominee as an absolute title to the land described or identified in the application.

If the Referee shall be of opinion that the applicant is entitled to make application as aforesaid, and that he is in possession as aforesaid substantially of the land described or identified as aforesaid, and that he would be entitled to maintain and defend such possession as against any other person claiming the same or any part thereof, and that the land of which the applicant is in such possession as aforesaid, though the evidence is insufficient as to the description or identification thereof given in the application, is capable of being described or identified in the other way in which it might have been described or identified in the application, he shall provisionally approve the registration of the title of the applicant or his nominee as an absolute title to land described or identified in the way in which it might have been described or identified in the application.

REGISTRATION OF TITLES

In either of the two cases aforesaid, if the Referee shall be of opinion as aforesaid, except that the applicant does not satisfy him that he would be entitled to maintain and defend his possession against any person whose estate, right or interest, might arise before a specified date or under a specified instrument, or might be otherwise particularly described, he shall provisionally approve the registration of the title of the applicant or his nominee as a qualified title to land as aforesaid, and shall specify the nature of the qualified title to land as aforesaid, and shall specify the nature of the qualification to which such title is to be subject.

32. It shall be no objection to the Referee approving any title as aforesaid that the land is subject to any liabilities, rights or interests, which under the provisions of this Act, need not be entered on the certificate of title as incumbrances, or that the land is subject to any incumbrance (not being a mortgage the owner whereof shall not have consented to the application) which may be specified in the certificate of title and continue outstanding.

33. When the Referee shall provisionally approve of the registration of any title as aforesaid, he shall communicate such provisional approval to the Registrar, and shall direct the Registrar to cause notification thereof to be given by advertisement or advertisements in the Gazette, or at least one newspaper published in the city of Kingston or circulating in the neighbourhood of the land, and to be served on any persons named by him, and all persons in possession or charge of the adjoining lands, and warning all such persons that, unless a caveat be lodged forbidding the same within such time as shall be appointed by the Referee (which shall not be less than two weeks or more than twelve months from the date of such advertisement or the first of such advertisements if more than one), the title will be registered in accordance with such provisional approval.

34. When the Referee shall refuse his provisional approval, the Registrar shall communicate such refusal to the applicant, and when the Referee shall provisionally approve the title to land with a different description or identification to that contained in the application, or has approved it subject to any qualification other than such as may have been inserted in the application, the Registrar shall before giving any notices as aforesaid, communicate the provisional approval to the applicant, and shall not proceed further with the matter until he shall have been informed by the applicant that he acquiesces in the decision of the Referee.

35. If the applicant under such circumstances is dissatisfied with the decision of the Referee, it shall be lawful for him to proceed under the provisions of section 156.

36. Subject to the foregoing provisions the Registrar shall, under such directions as aforesaid, cause notice to be published, in such manner as by such direction may be prescribed, of such provisional approval as aforesaid, with such description or identification thereof as shall have been approved of as aforesaid, and shall cause a copy of such notice to be posted in a conspicuous place in the office, and shall send through the Post Office a registered letter, marked outside “Office of Titles, Jamaica”, containing a copy of such notice, addressed to every person whom the Referee shall have directed to be served with notice, and to the persons stated in the application to be occupiers of the land (if other than the applicant) and to the occupiers and owners of the lands contiguous thereto.

37. If at the expiration of the time limited in the notice aforesaid for lodging a caveat the Registrar shall not have received a caveat forbidding the bringing of the land in question under the operation of this Act, he shall bring such land under this Act, in accordance with the directions of the Referee, in manner hereinafter mentioned, by registering the title of the applicant or of the person in whose name he may have directed the certificate of title to be issued thereto (in manner hereinafter provided) as an absolute or qualified title as may have been determined by the Referee, and with such description or identification of the land as may have been approved of by the Referee.

Where an applicant has directed a certificate of title to be issued in the name of a nominee the Registrar shall at the direction of the applicant and with the consent of the nominee issue the certificate of title to such person as shall be named in such direction and consent which direction and consent shall be liable to the stamp duties provided by section 174.

38. The production by a Solicitor—

(a) of a certificate of title issued in the name of a purchaser as a nominee; or

(b) of an instrument having in the body thereof or endorsed thereon a receipt for consideration money, or other consideration, the instrument being executed or the endorsed receipt being signed by the person entitled to give a receipt for that consideration; or

(c) of a certificate of title endorsed with a memorandum of an instrument of transfer, mortgage, lease, or other dealing for pecuniary or other consideration (whether or not such instrument may have contained or been endorsed with a receipt as aforesaid),

shall be sufficient authority to the person liable to pay or deliver the same for the payment or delivery of the consideration money, or other consideration, to the Solicitor, notwithstanding that the solicitor does not produce any separate or other direction or authority in that behalf from the person who is entitled to receive the consideration money, or other consideration, for the land mentioned in the certificate of title or from the person who signed the instrument or receipt.

39. Land leased for a term of years of which ten years are unexpired, or leased for years determinable with a life or lives, may be brought under the operation of this Act as near as may be in a similar manner, and subject to the same or similar provisions, as are hereinbefore contained with respect to freehold land.

The application may be made by persons having such estate and interest in the leasehold land as are similar or correspondent to the estates and interests of the persons entitled to apply to bring freehold land under the operation of this Act.

Every certificate of title to leasehold land shall always be subject to the rights and powers of the lessor or his representatives, and of any person entitled to the inheritance in the land immediately expectant on the term as well as to the incumbrances hereinafter mentioned as not requiring special notification.

The several provisions of this Act with respect to freehold land shall apply to leasehold land, with such variations only as the difference in the nature of such property requires, or as may be necessary to render such provisions applicable to leasehold for years.
40. After an application has been made to have any land brought under the operation of this Act, a Judge may require all persons having in their possession, custody or control, any deeds, instruments or evidence of title, relating to or affecting the land the subject of such application, to produce the same at a time, and place appointed by such Judge to the Registrar or to a Referee for his inspection upon such terms and subject to such conditions, and for such charge or fee, as the Judge making the order may think just and shall fix. All orders to be made by a Judge under this section may be made in Chambers on summons at the instance of the person applying to have the land brought under this Act.

41. Any applicant for registration may withdraw his application at any time prior to the registration of the certificate, and the Registrar shall in such case return to the applicant, or to the person entitled thereto, all deeds, documents and other evidence of title, lodged in support of the application; but in such case, if the caveator shall have been put to expense without sufficient cause by reason of such application, he shall be entitled to receive from the applicant such compensation as a Judge on a summons in Chambers shall deem just and order.

42. Upon registering a certificate of title, the Registrar shall retain in his custody and possession all deeds, instruments and documents, evidencing the title of the person registered, and shall endorse upon the last of them, if there be more than one, a memorandum that the land included in the certificate has been brought under this Act, and shall sign such memorandum:

Provided always that if any such deeds, instruments or documents, relate to any property other than the land included in such certificate, the Registrar shall cause such deed, document or instrument (if unrecorded) to be copied.
at the expense of the applicant, such copy to be retained by the Registrar, and shall return such deed, instrument or document to the person from whom he received the same, having first endorsed upon the same a memorandum signed by him to the effect that the land included in the certificate has been brought under the Act.

No person shall be entitled to inspection of any such deeds, instruments or documents, except upon the written order of the persons who originally deposited the same, or of some person claiming through or under him, or upon the order of a Judge.

No action or suit shall be brought or maintained upon any covenant or agreement for the production of the documents which shall be so retained, or upon any agreement to give or enter into a covenant for the production thereof; and if any such action or suit shall be commenced it shall be a sufficient answer thereto that such documents have been retained under this Act.

_Caveat against Registration of Land_

43. Any person claiming any estate or interest in the land described in the advertisement may, in person or by agent, within the time appointed by the Referee under section 33, lodge a caveat with the Registrar, in the form in the Second Schedule, forbidding the bringing of such land under this Act; every such caveat shall be signed by the caveator or by his agent, and shall particularize the estate or interest claimed; and the person lodging such caveat shall, if required by the Registrar, support the same by a statutory declaration, stating the nature of the title under which the claim is made, and also deliver an abstract of his title to such estate or interest.

REGISTRATION OF TITLES

No such caveat shall be received unless some address or place within the limits of the city of Kingston shall be appointed therein as the place at which notices and proceedings relating to such caveat may be served.

44. The Registrar, upon receipt of such caveat, shall notify the same to the applicant, and shall suspend proceedings in the matter until such caveat shall have been withdrawn or shall have lapsed as hereinafter provided, or until an order in the matter shall have been obtained from the Supreme Court or a Judge.

The applicant may, if he think fit, summon the caveator to attend before the Supreme Court, or a Judge in Chambers, to show cause why such caveat should not be removed, and such Court or Judge may, upon proof that such caveator has been summoned, make such order in the premises, either ex parte or otherwise, as to such Court or Judge may seem fit.

45. After the expiration of one month from the receipt thereof, such caveat shall be deemed to have lapsed unless the person by whom, or on whose behalf, the same was lodged shall within that time have taken proceedings, in a court of competent jurisdiction, to establish his title to the estate or interest specified in the caveat, and shall have given notice thereof to the Registrar, or shall have obtained and served on him an injunction or order of the Supreme Court or a Judge restraining him from bringing the land under the operation of this Act.

A caveat shall not be renewed by or on behalf of the same person in respect of the same estate or interest.

46. In case the applicant, or the person in whose name the certificate of title has been directed to issue, shall die between the application and the registration of the certificate, it shall be registered in the name of such applicant or of such person, as the case may be, and such land shall devolve or pass in like manner, as if the certificate had been registered prior to the death of such applicant or person.

Registration of Land with doubtful Title

47. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, a Referee may after the publication of such advertisement as he may deem fit direct the Registrar to bring any lands under the operation of this Act upon the applicant contributing to the Assurance Fund, in augmentation thereof, such an additional sum of money as the Referee shall certify under his hand to be in his judgment a sufficient indemnity by reason of the non-production of any document affecting the title, or of the imperfect nature of the evidence of title, or against any uncertain or doubtful claim or demand arising upon the title.

Office Copy of Decree or Order as Evidence of Title

48. An office copy of any order heretofore made by the Supreme Court or any District Court, or which shall hereafter be made by the Supreme Court or any Resident Magistrate’s Court (whether such order shall hereafter be in the form of an order confirming the Registrar’s or Clerk’s report or in any other form) confirming a person as the purchaser of any land sold in fee simple under or in pursuance of any decree or order of such Court, together with an office copy of such decree or order, and such certificate of payment as is hereinafter mentioned may, for the purpose of bringing land under the operation of this Act, be deemed by a Referee sufficient evidence of the title of the purchaser to such land, subject to any estate or interest appearing by the decree or order or order of confirmation, or subsequently created and registered.

Every order of confirmation of a purchase which shall hereafter be made shall be drawn up so as to refer to a schedule thereto, containing the name and addition of the purchaser and description of the land purchased by him, and the Registrar of the Supreme Court or Clerk of a Resident Magistrate's Court is hereby required, after payment and acceptance of all the money payable in respect of any particular purchase, to give upon any office copy of any such order of confirmation a written certificate that the purchase money and all interest in respect thereof, payable by any purchaser named in such certificate for any land therein referred to, have been wholly paid.

Purchaser requiring Registered Title

49. When any contract shall have been made for the sale and purchase of any land, then unless the person agreeing to sell such land shall have stipulated to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the purchaser at any time before the completion of the purchase, to require that the vendor shall instead of making a conveyance of such land, cause him to be registered as proprietor of the land, the subject of the contract, under the provisions of this Act, with an absolute title, in cases where the land has been agreed to be sold without any special conditions as to title, or with a title subject to such qualifications as may be in accord with the conditions under which the land was agreed to be sold:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall deprive any vendor of any right which may arise out of such contract for sale by reason of any rule of law and equity:

Provided also that the incidence of costs as provided for under the Conveyancing Act, shall be in no way affected.

50. If the purchaser shall exercise the option hereby vested in him, the vendor shall furnish him with the information which he is under the said Conveyancing Act bound to furnish, and shall submit the draft application form filled in with such particulars, and the purchaser shall at his own expense make all such searches and investigations into the title as are required to make the application complete.

51. The costs of the application form, the fees payable under this Act and stamp duty, if any, shall be deemed to be the vendor's costs within the meaning of section 4 of the Conveyancing Act.

Registration in lieu of Patent

52. In all cases in which prior to the 1st October, 1889, a "patent" as defined herein would have been the appropriate form of conveyance to any grantee of any lands, in lieu of such patent it shall be sufficient for the Minister to issue directions to the Registrar to register the proposed grantee as the proprietor of the land to be granted to him, and the Registrar shall thereupon, upon payment by the proposed grantee of the fee payable for a certificate of title, without reference to the Referees or observance of any of the forms required to be observed in other cases, forthwith bring the land described in such requisition under the operation of this Act, by registering the title of the person named in such requisition as the proprietor of the said land:

Provided always that the Assurance Fund under this Act shall not be answerable in respect of any claim thereafter arising in reference to the said land, but the Government shall be liable in the same way and to the same extent as in other cases under this Act the applicant or the said Assurance Fund would be liable; and a note of the liability of the Government shall be made on every certificate of title issued under this section.

53. Any patent heretofore made may, for the purpose of bringing land under the operation of this Act, be deemed by the Registrar or a Referee sufficient evidence of the title of the grantee under any such patent to the land comprised in such patent subject to any estate or interest appearing by such patent or subsequently created.

Re-registration of Registered Land by Plan

54.—(1) Any person entitled to sell land, which shall have been registered otherwise than by plat or diagram, may apply to have such land registered by plat or diagram.

(2) An application under this section shall in all respects be treated and dealt with as if it were an original application to register land. The duplicate certificate of title shall accompany the application, and the same shall be retained and cancelled by the Registrar, and the original certificate of title shall also be cancelled by the Registrar, before the issue of a new certificate.

(3) The Referee, when communicating any provisional approval of the registration of such title to the Registrar, shall, besides giving such directions as are required in the case of original applications, direct the Registrar to cause notification of the application to be served on all persons other than the applicant who appear by the certificate of title to have any interest in the land.

Register Book; Mode of Registering; and effect of Registration

55. Land shall be brought under the operation of this Act by the Registrar registering a certificate certifying, under his hand and the seal of the Office, that a person therein named is the proprietor of the land therein described or identified, either with an absolute title or with such qualified title as may have been directed and approved by the Referee, as the case may be.

Such a certificate (herein called “certificate of title”) shall be in duplicate in the form in the Third Schedule; and the Registrar shall keep a book or file, to be called the Register

Book, and shall enter by either binding up or filing therein one of the certificates of title, and shall deliver the other (hereinafter called the duplicate) to the proprietor, having previously marked thereon the volume and folium of the Register Book in which the same is entered.

Each certificate shall constitute a separate folium of such Book, and the Registrar shall endorse thereon, in such manner as to preserve their priorities, the particulars of all dealings and matters affecting the land by this Act required to be registered or entered.

56. Before the delivery of any certificate of title, a receipt for it in the handwriting of the proprietor of such estate in such land as shall be therein described or his agent may be required when practicable, so as to prevent, as far as may be, personation.

57. At the time of the registration of any grant in fee to two or more persons in joint tenancy for any public purpose, the Registrar shall endorse thereon, and on every subsequent certificate of title, the words “no survivorship”, and sign his name thereto.

58. Every duplicate certificate of title shall be deemed and taken to be registered under this Act when the Registrar has marked thereon the volume and folium of the Register Book in which the certificate is entered; and every instrument purporting to affect land under the operation of this Act shall be deemed and taken to be registered at the time when produced for registration, if the Registrar shall subsequently enter a memorandum thereof as hereinafter described in the Register Book upon the folium constituted by the existing certificate of title and also upon the duplicate; and the person named in any certificate of title or instrument so registered as the proprietor of, or having any estate or interest in or power over, the land therein described or identified, shall be deemed and taken to be the duly registered proprietor thereof, or as duly registered in respect of such estate, interest or power:

Provided that if, before entering the memorandum hereinbefore mentioned, the Registrar shall, for any reason, return the instrument to the person producing the same, the time of reproduction of the instrument for registration, after the requirements of the Registrar have been complied with, shall be the time of production for registration.

59. Every instrument presented for registration may be in duplicate (except a transfer whereon a new certificate of title is required), and shall be registered in the order of, and as from, the time at which the same is produced for that purpose; and instruments purporting to affect the same estate or interest shall, notwithstanding any actual or constructive notice, be entitled to priority as between themselves according to the time of registration, and not according to the date of the instrument. Upon the registration of any instrument the Registrar shall bind up the original in his office in a book to be kept for that purpose and shall deliver the other (hereinafter called the duplicate) to the person entitled.

As to trusts. 60. The Registrar shall not enter in the Register Book notice of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive; but trusts may be declared by any document, and a duplicate or an attested copy thereof may be deposited with the Registrar for safe custody and reference; and the Registrar, should it appear to him expedient so to do, may protect in any way he may deem advisable the rights of the persons for the time being beneficially interested thereunder, or thereby required to give any consent; but the rights incident to any proprietorship or to any instrument, dealing or matter, registered under this Act, shall not be in any manner affected by the deposit of such duplicate or copy, nor shall the same be registered.

61. Every memorandum entered in the Register Book shall state the nature of the instrument or document to which it relates, the time of registration or entry thereof, the name of the grantee, and shall refer by number or symbol to such instrument or document, and shall be signed by the Registrar.

62. Whenever a memorandum of any instrument has been entered on a certificate of title in the Register Book, the Registrar shall enter the like memorandum on the duplicate certificate, and he shall endorse on every instrument registered a certificate of the time at which the memorandum was entered in the Register Book:

Provided always that the time at which the instrument was produced for registration, subject to the terms of the proviso contained in section 58, shall be deemed and shall be stated by the Registrar in his certificate, as the time at which the memorandum was entered in the Register Book. The Registrar shall authenticate such certificate by signing his name thereto and such certificate shall be received in all courts as conclusive evidence that such instrument has been duly registered and at the time stated in the said certificate.

63. When land has been brought under the operation of this Act, no instrument until registered in manner herein provided shall be effectual to pass any estate or interest in such land, or to render such land liable to any mortgage or charge; but upon such registration the estate or interest comprised in the instrument shall pass or, as the case may be, the land shall become liable in manner and subject to the covenants and conditions set forth and specified in the instrument, or by this Act declared to be implied in instruments of a like nature; and should two or more instruments signed by the same proprietor, and purporting to affect the same estate or interest, be at the same time presented to the Registrar for registration, the Registrar shall register and endorse that instrument which shall be presented by the person producing the certificate of title.

64. The proprietor of land under the operation of this Act shall be entitled to receive a certificate of title to the same; and if any certificate be issued to a minor, or to a person under any disability, the Registrar shall state the age of such minor, or the nature of the disability, so far as known to him.

65. Two or more persons may be registered under this Act as joint tenants, tenants in common or coparceners of any land. In all cases where two or more persons are registered as tenants in common or as coparceners of any land one certificate for the entirety or separate certificates for the undivided shares may be issued; but in the case of persons registered as joint tenants, one certificate only shall be issued.

66. Upon the transfer of any land, and upon the lease of any freehold land, to two or more persons as joint proprietors, with the words, “no survivorship” endorsed thereon, the Registrar shall enter such words in the memorandum of such transfer or lease, and also upon any certificate of title issued to such joint proprietors pursuant to such transfer, and sign his name thereto.

Where two or more persons are joint proprietors of any land or of any such lease, or of any charge, they may, by writing under their hands, direct the Registrar to enter the words “no survivorship” upon the certificate of title or instrument relating to the property. In every case after such words shall have been signed by the Registrar, whether under this or section 57 it shall not be lawful for any persons other than all the proprietors registered to transfer or otherwise deal with the property without the order of the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof obtained on motion or petition or in cases where the value of the land affected shall not exceed four hundred dollars, then of the Resident Magistrate’s Court of the parish in which the land is situated:

Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall prevent the surviving or remaining trustee or trustees from transferring the land so as to give effect to any valid appointment of a new trustee or trustees or the Registrar from registering in the usual manner, such transfer.

67. Before the Court or Judge or Resident Magistrate shall make any such order, it or he may cause notice of the application for the same to be advertised once at least in one newspaper published in the city of Kingston, or circulating in the neighbourhood of the land, and shall appoint a time within which it shall be lawful for any person interested to show cause against such order being made, after the expiration of which time it shall be lawful for the said Court or Judge or Resident Magistrate to give directions for the transfer of such land or lease or charge to any new proprietor or proprietors solely or jointly with or in the place of any existing proprietor or proprietors, or to make such order in the premises as shall be just for the protection of any person beneficially interested in such property, or in the proceeds thereof; and on such order being deposited with the Registrar he shall make such entries and perform such acts for giving effect thereto as the provisions of this Act may render necessary.

68. No certificate of title registered and granted under this Act shall be impeached or defeasible by reason or on account of any informality or irregularity in the application for the same, or in the proceedings previous to the registration of the certificate; and every certificate of title issued under any of the provisions herein contained shall be received in all courts as evidence of the particulars therein set forth, and of the entry thereof in the Register Book, and shall, subject to the subsequent operation of any statute of limitations, be conclusive evidence that the person named in such certificate as the proprietor of or having any estate or interest in, or power to appoint or dispose of the land therein described is seised or possessed of such estate or interest or has such power.

69. In any suit for specific performance, or in any action for damages, brought by a proprietor of any land under the operation of this Act against a person who may have contracted to purchase such land, not having notice of any fraud or other circumstances which, according to the provisions of this Act, would affect the right of the vendor, the certificate of title of such proprietor shall, if such proprietor is registered with an absolute title, be held to be conclusive evidence that such proprietor has a good and valid title to the land for the estate or interest therein mentioned or described, and shall in any such suit entitle such proprietor to a decree for the specific performance of such contract. And if such proprietor is registered with a qualified title the certificate shall be conclusive evidence that he has a good and valid title, subject to the qualification therein set forth.

70. Notwithstanding the existence in any other person of any estate or interest, whether derived by grant from the Crown or otherwise, which but for this Act might be held to be paramount or to have priority, the proprietor of land or of any estate or interest in land under the operation of this Act shall, except in case of fraud, hold the same as the same may be described or identified in the certificate of title, subject to any qualification that may be specified in the certificate, and to such incumbrances as may be notified.
on the folium of the Register Book constituted by his certificate of title, but absolutely free from all other incumbrances whatsoever, except the estate or interest of a proprietor claiming the same land under a prior registered certificate of title, and except as regards any portion of land that may by wrong description of parcels or boundaries be included in the certificate of title or instrument evidencing the title of such proprietor not being a purchaser for valuable consideration or deriving from or through such a purchaser:

Provided always that the land which shall be included in any certificate of title or registered instrument shall be deemed to be subject to the reservations, exceptions, conditions and powers (if any), contained in the patent thereof, and to any rights acquired over such land since the same was brought under the operation of this Act under any statute of limitations, and to any public rights of way, and to any easement acquired by enjoyment or user, or subsisting over or upon or affecting such land, and to any unpaid rates and assessments, quit rents or taxes, that have accrued due since the land was brought under the operation of this Act, and also to the interests of any tenant of the land for a term not exceeding three years, notwithstanding the same respectively may not be specially notified as incumbrances in such certificate or instrument.

71. Except in the case of fraud, no person contracting or dealing with, or taking or proposing to take a transfer, from the proprietor of any registered land, lease, mortgage or charge, shall be required or in any manner concerned to enquire or ascertain the circumstances under, or the consideration for, which such proprietor or any previous proprietor thereof was registered, or to see to the application of any purchase or consideration money, or shall be affected by notice, actual or constructive, of any trust or unregistered interest, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding.

standing; and the knowledge that any such trust or unregistered interest is in existence shall not of itself be imputed as fraud.

72. The person named in any certificate of title as the proprietor of any estate of freehold in possession in the land therein described shall be held, in every court to be seised of the reversion and inheritance in the land immediately expectant upon the term of any lease that may be mentioned as an incumbrance in such certificate, and to have all powers, rights and remedies, to which such a reversion by law is entitled, and shall be subject to all the covenants and conditions in such lease to be performed and observed by or on the part of the lessor.

73. Without lessening or prejudicing any of the other rights, powers and remedies, by this Act given and conferred every proprietor, and every transferee, when registered, of any land, lease, mortgage or charge shall whilst continuing so registered have the same estates, rights, powers and remedies, and be subject to the same engagements, obligations and liabilities, and may sue and be sued in his own name in respect thereof or thereupon in like manner as if he had been the original proprietor of the land by or with whom the engagement, obligation or liability, sued upon was entered into or incurred, or the original mortgagee, lessee or annuitant.

74. The proprietor of any land, or any lease, mortgage or charge, shall, on the application of any beneficiary or person interested therein, be bound to allow his name to be used by such beneficiary or person in any action, suit or proceeding, which it may be necessary or proper to bring or institute in the name of such proprietor concerning such land, lease, mortgage or charge, or for the protection or benefit of the title vested in such proprietor, or of the interest of any such beneficiary or person; but nevertheless such proprietor shall, in any such case, be entitled to be indemnified in like manner as if, being a trustee, he would before the commencement of this Act have been entitled to be indemnified in a similar case of his name being used in any such action, suit or proceeding, by his cestui que trust.

75. When land shall have been brought under the operation of this Act, and a certificate shall have been issued subject to a mortgage or other incumbrance made or given before the issuing of such certificate, such mortgage or other incumbrance may be discharged in like manner as if it were a mortgage or other incumbrance made in the manner prescribed by and registered under this Act, and the mortgagee or other person claiming under such mortgage or incumbrance may exercise the same rights and remedies as if the mortgage or other incumbrance had been made and registered in the form and manner prescribed by this Act.

Inspection of Register Book

76. Any person may, on payment of the fee for the time being payable in that behalf, inspect the Register Book during the hours and upon the days of business.

Provisions as to Certificates

77. On the application of any proprietor of land held under one or more certificates of title, or of land so held and of land about to be brought under this Act and on his delivering up the duplicate certificates of title the Registrar may register one certificate of title for the whole of such land, or several certificates for the several portions thereof in the name of such person in accordance with such application, so far as the same may be done consistently with any regulations for the time being in force respecting the parcels of land that may be included in one certificate of title, and upon registering any certificate under this section the Registrar shall cancel the previous certificate and the duplicate thereof and shall endorse thereupon a memorandum setting forth the occasion of such cancellation and referring to the new certificate.

78. 79. The Registrar, if in his opinion the number or nature of the entries on any certificate of title or the condition of the certificate of title or the duplicate or special certificate of title render it expedient so to do, may require that the duplicate or special certificate of title be surrendered for cancellation and upon such surrender the Registrar shall proceed as if an application had been made to him under section 77 for the registration of a new certificate of title for the land comprised in the surrendered certificate.

82.—(1) Whenever a duplicate certificate of title or special certificate of title is lost or destroyed the registered proprietor of the land or some person claiming through him may apply to the Registrar to cancel the certificate of title and to register a new certificate in duplicate in the name of the registered proprietor or his transferee in place of such certificate and duplicate or special certificate. On proof being furnished to his satisfaction of such loss or destruction, and on such requisitions, if any, which he may make being complied with, and on the expiration of the notice to be given as hereinafter provided without sufficient cause having been shown against the application, the Registrar shall cancel the certificate and register a new certificate in duplicate in the name of the registered proprietor or his transferee in place of the former certificate and duplicate or special certificate, both of which shall thereupon be deemed to be cancelled.

(2) Before disposing of the application the Registrar shall give at least fourteen days' notice thereof in at least one newspaper and such other notice, if any, as he may think fit.

(3) An application under this section may be combined with an application under section 81 to dispense with the production of a duplicate certificate.

Leases

94. Any freehold land under the operation of this Act may be leased for any term not being less than one year by the execution of a lease thereof in the form in the Sixth Schedule, and the registration of such lease under this Act; but no lease of any land subject to a mortgage or charge shall be valid or binding against the mortgagee or annuitant unless he shall have consented in writing to such lease prior to the same being registered.

95. In every lease made under the provisions of this Act there shall be implied the following covenants with the lessor and his transferees by the lessee, binding the latter and his heirs, executors, administrators and transferees, that is to say—

97. Whenever, in any lease made under this Act, the lessee shall employ any of the forms of words contained in column one of the Seventh Schedule, and distinguished by any number therein, such lease shall be taken to have the same effect and be construed as if he had inserted therein the form of words contained in column two of the same Schedule, and distinguished by the corresponding number, and every such form shall be deemed a covenant with the lessor and his transferees by the lessee, binding the latter and his heirs, executors, administrators and transferees, but it shall not be necessary in any such lease to insert any such number. There may be introduced into or annexed to any of the forms in the first column any express exceptions from or express qualifications thereof respectively, and the like exceptions or qualifications shall be taken to be made from or in the corresponding forms in the second column.

98. In every transfer of a lease made under this Act, and in every transfer of a grant for years, there shall be implied a covenant with the lessor by the transferee binding him and his heirs, executors, administrators and transferees, that he or they will thenceforth pay the rent by the lease or grant Provided that no such transfer shall be registered unless the same is duly executed by the transferee.

99. The Registrar, upon proof to his satisfaction of re-entry by the lessor or his transferees in manner prescribed by the lease or by virtue of the power conferred by subparagraph (b) of section 96, or of recovery of possession by a lessor or his transferees by any proceeding in law, shall note the same by entry in the Register Book and on the duplicate certificate of title and thereupon the term for which the land was leased and the estate of the lessee shall determine but without releasing the lessee from his liability in respect of the breach or non-observance of any covenant expressed in the lease or by this Act declared to be implied therein.

100. 101. A lease made under this Act may be surrendered and determined as well by operation of law or under any enactment now or hereafter to be in force relating to bankrupts and their estates, as by the word “Surrendered” with the date being endorsed upon such lease or on the duplicate thereof (if any) and signed by the lessee or his transferee and by the lessor or his transferee and attested by a witness. The Registrar shall enter in the Register Book a memorandum recording the date of such surrender, and shall likewise endorse upon the duplicate (if any) a memorandum recording the fact of such entry having been made.

Upon such entry in the Register Book, the estate and interest of the lessee or his transferee shall vest in the lessor, or in the proprietor for the time being of the reversion and inheritance in the land immediately expectant on the term; and production of such lease, or duplicate (if any) bearing such endorsement and memorandum, shall be sufficient evidence that such lease has been legally surrendered:

Provided that no lease subject to a mortgage or charge shall be so surrendered without the consent in writing of the proprietor of such mortgage or charge.

102.—(1) The lessee of land under the operation of this Act may by instrument in the prescribed form make under this Act an under-lease out of his leasehold interest with a leasehold reversion.

(3) The determination of a registered head lease by forfeiture or operation of law, or by surrender under any enactment relating to bankruptcy shall also have effect as a determination of the under-lease derived therefrom.

(4) In every under-lease granted under this Act there shall be an implied covenant that the under-lessee will, during the term of such under-lease, pay the rent reserved by and perform and observe the covenants and agreements contained in the head lease and required on his part to be paid, performed and observed, as the case may be.

(5) All the provisions of this Act relating to leases, lessors and lessees shall, subject to the provisions of this section, apply mutatis mutandis to under-leases, under-lessores and under-lessees, respectively.

REGISTRATION OF TITLES

104. The proprietor of any land under the operation of this Act may mortgage the same to any building society by signing a mortgage thereof in the form in the Tenth Schedule.

105. A mortgage and charge under this Act shall, when registered as hereinbefore provided, have effect as a security, but shall not operate as a transfer of the land thereby mortgaged or charged; and in case default be made in payment of the principal sum, interest or annuity secured, or any part thereof respectively, or in the performance or observance of any covenant expressed in any mortgage or charge, or hereby declared to be implied in any mortgage, and such default be continued for one month, or for such other period of time as may therein for that purpose be expressly fixed, the mortgagee or annuitant, or his transferees, may give to the mortgagor or grantor or his transferees notice in writing to pay the money owing on such mortgage or charge, or to perform and observe the aforesaid covenants (as the case may be) by giving such notice to him or them, or by leaving the same on some conspicuous place on the mortgaged or charged land, or by sending the same through the post office by a registered letter directed to the then proprietor of the land at his address appearing in the Register Book.

106. If such default in payment, or in performance or observance of covenants, shall continue for one month after the service of such notice, or for such other period as may in such mortgage or charge be for that purpose fixed, the mortgagee or annuitant, or his transferees, may sell the land mortgaged or charged, or any part thereof, either altogether or in lots, by public auction or by private contract, and either at one or at several times and subject to such terms and conditions as may be deemed fit, and may buy in or vary or rescind any contract for sale, and resell in manner aforesaid, without being liable to the mortgagor or grantor for any loss occasioned thereby, and may make and sign such transfers and do such acts and things as shall be necessary for effectuating any such sale, and no purchaser shall be bound to see or inquire whether such default as aforesaid shall have been made or have happened, or have continued, or whether such notice as aforesaid shall have been served, or otherwise into the propriety or regularity of any such sale; and the Registrar upon production of a transfer made in professed exercise of the power of sale conferred by this Act or by the mortgage or charge shall not be concerned or required to make any of the inquiries aforesaid; and any persons damnedified by an unauthorized or improper or irregular exercise of the power shall have his remedy only in damages against the person exercising the power.

107. The purchase money arising from the sale of the mortgaged or charged land shall be applied as follows—

If the sale be by the mortgagee or his transferee—

First, in payment of the expenses of and incidental to such sale and consequent on such default; secondly, in payment of the moneys which may be due or owing on the mortgage, thirdly in payment of subsequent mortgages and of any money which may be due or owing in respect of any subsequent charge in the order of their respective priorities; and the surplus (if any) shall be paid to the mortgagor:

Provided always that if the sale be made by a mortgagee or his transferees, and there is a subsequent charge, the purchase moneys, after there shall have been made thereout all proper prior payments, shall be deposited by him or them in the manner and names, and for the purposes, corresponding with those after mentioned.
If the sale be by the annuitant or his transferees—

First, in payment of the expenses of and incidental to such sale and consequent on such default; then in payment of the moneys which may be due or owing to the annuitant or his transferees; and the residue shall be deposited by him or them at interest in the Workers Savings and Loan Bank, in the joint names of the annuitant or his transferees and of the Registrar, to satisfy the accruing payments of the charge, and, subject thereto, for the benefit of the persons who may be or become entitled to the residue of the deposited money.

108. Upon the registration of any transfer signed by a mortgagee or annuitant, or his transferees, for the purpose of such sale as aforesaid, the estate and interest of the mortgagor or grantor in the land therein described at the time of the registration of the mortgage or charge, or which he was then entitled or able to transfer or dispose of under any power of appointment or disposition, or under any power herein contained, shall pass to and vest in the purchaser, freed and discharged from all liability on account of such mortgage or charge, and of any mortgage, charge or incumbrance, registered subsequently thereto, excepting a lease to which the mortgagee or annuitant, or his transferees, shall have consented in writing; and the purchaser when registered as the proprietor shall be deemed a transferee of such land, and shall be entitled to receive a certificate of title to the same.

109. The mortgagee or annuitant, or his transferees, upon default in payment of the principal sum or interest or annuity, or any part thereof respectively, at the time mentioned in the mortgage or charge, may enter into possession of the mortgaged or charged land by receiving the rents and profits thereof, and may distrain upon the occupier or tenant of the land under the power to distraint hereinafter contained, or may bring an action of ejectment to recover the land either before or after entering into the receipt of the rents and profits thereof, or making any distress, and either before or after any sale of such land shall be affected under the power of sale aforesaid, in the same manner in which he or they might have brought such action if the mortgage money or annuity had been secured to him or them by an assurance of the legal estate in the land mortgaged or charged and any mortgagee or his transferee shall be entitled to foreclose the right of the mortgagor or his transferees to redeem the mortgaged land in manner hereinafter provided.

110. Besides his other remedies, every mortgagee or annuitant for the time being, and every transferee of a mortgage or charge for the time being, shall be entitled, as often as it shall happen that the interest or annuity or any part thereof respectively shall be in arrear for twenty-one days, and after seven days shall have elapsed from an application to the occupier or tenant for the payment thereof, to enter upon the mortgaged or charged land and distraint the goods and chattels of such occupier or tenant for the arrears of the said interest or annuity, and the distress and distresses then and there found to dispose of in like manner as landlords may do in respect of distresses for rent reserved upon common demises, and out of the sale moneys to retain the moneys which shall be so in arrear and all costs and expenses occasioned by such distress and sale:

Provided that no occupier or tenant shall be liable to pay to any such mortgagee or annuitant or transferee a greater sum than the amount of rent which at the time of making such application for payment shall be due from such occupier or tenant; and any amount so paid, as well as any amount which shall be paid by him to any such

mortgagee or annuitant or transferee during the time he may be in receipt of the rents and profits, shall be held to be pro tanto satisfaction of the rent:

And provided also that if there be more than one mortgage or charge on any land the mortgagees or annuitants shall be entitled to exercise the remedy given by this section according to their priorities.

111. In every mortgage made under the provisions of this Act there shall be implied covenants with the mortgagee and his transferees by the mortgagor, binding the latter, and his heirs, executors, administrators and transferees, that he or they will pay the principal money therein mentioned on the day therein appointed, and will, so long as the principal money or any part thereof shall remain unpaid, pay interest thereon or on so much thereof as shall for the time being remain unpaid, at the rate, and on the days and in manner therein specified; also that he or they will repair and keep in repair all buildings or other improvements which shall have been or shall be erected or made upon the mortgaged land, and that the mortgagee and his transferees may at all reasonable times until such mortgage be redeemed, enter into and upon such land, with or without surveyors or others, to view and inspect the state of repair of such buildings or improvements.

112. A mortgagee of or annuitant upon land leased under this Act, and his transferees, after entering into possession of the land, or the receipt of the rents and profits thereof, shall during such possession or receipt, and to the extent of any benefit, rents and profits, which may be received, become and be subject and liable to the lessor of the said land or his transferees, or the person for the time being entitled to the reversion and inheritance expectant on the term of the lease, for the payment of the rent reserved by the lease, and the performance and observance of the covenants therein contained or by this Act declared to be implied therein, on the part of the lessee or his transferees.

113. Whenever in any mortgage made under this Act the mortgagor shall employ the form of words contained in column one of the Eleventh Schedule, such mortgage shall be taken to have the same effect and be construed as if he had inserted therein the form of words contained in column two of the same Schedule, and every such form shall be deemed a covenant with the mortgagee and his transferees by the mortgagor, binding the latter and his heirs, executors, administrators and transferees. There may be introduced into or annexed to the said form in the first column any express exception from or express qualification thereof, and the like exception or qualification shall be taken to be made from or in the form in the second column.

114. In addition to and concurrently with the rights and powers conferred on mortgagees and on transferees of mortgagees by this Act, every mortgagee for the time being of land under this Act and every transferee of a mortgage for the time being upon any such land shall, until a discharge from the whole of the money secured, or until a transfer upon a sale or an order for foreclosure, as the case may be, shall have been registered, have the same rights and remedies at law and in equity as he would have had or been entitled to if the legal estate in the land or term mortgaged had been actually vested in him, with a right in the mortgagor of quiet enjoyment of the mortgaged land until default in payment of the principal and interest money secured or some part thereof respectively, or until a breach in the performance or observance of some covenant expressed in the mortgage or to be implied therein by the provisions of this Act.

Nothing contained in this section shall affect or prejudice the rights or liabilities of any such mortgagee or transferee after an order for foreclosure shall have been entered in the Register Book, or shall, until the entry of such an order, render a mortgagee of a lease made under this Act, or the transferee of his mortgage, liable to or for the payment of the rent reserved by the lease, or for the performance or observance of the covenants expressed or to be implied therein.

115. A mortgagor or his transferee shall not, either before or after such default or breach as aforesaid, commence in his own name any action at law for or in respect of any cause of action for which a mortgagee or his transferee may sue under the last preceding section, without obtaining the previous consent in writing of such mortgagee or transferee, or his agent, to the commencement of such action, after giving which consent such mortgagee or transferee shall not be entitled to bring in his name any action in respect of the cause of action specified in such consent.

If a mortgagor or his transferee shall bring any such action in his own name, and the defendant shall prove the existence of a mortgage, the plaintiff shall not be non-suited, nor shall there be a verdict or judgment against him, if he prove in reply that the action was brought with the written consent of the mortgagee, or of the transferee of his mortgage, or his agent.

116. Any sum of money which shall become payable to the mortgagor or his transferee under any judgment, decree or order in any action by him, in the Supreme Court or in any Resident Magistrate's Court for or on account of any waste or damage of or to the land mortgaged, shall be paid to the first mortgagee or his transferee, in reduction or satisfaction of the moneys secured; and if he shall not be willing to receive the same, or shall thereby be fully paid off the same, or the balance shall be paid to any subsequent mortgagee or his transferee, according to priority, in like reduction or satisfaction, and if no mortgagee or his transferee shall be willing or be entitled to receive the same, then to the mortgagor or his transferee for his own benefit.

117. Any mortgagee or his transferee entitled to be paid any sum of money under section 116 may, either before or after judgment or execution obtained under any decree or order as aforesaid, apply to the Judge of the court in which such action was brought for a summons, calling on the plaintiff and defendant, or their solicitors or agents, to attend before the Judge to show cause why any such sum which shall have been recovered as damages in respect of any waste or damage as aforesaid, or which shall become payable on the settlement thereof, shall not be paid to such persons and for such purposes as in the next preceding section mentioned; and the Judge hearing the summons shall determine the matter thereof in a summary manner, and shall make such order therein as to costs and all other matters as may appear to be just and reasonable, and the decision of such judge shall be final and conclusive against all parties:

Provided always that every order made in pursuance of this section shall be liable to be rescinded or altered by the court in like manner as other orders made by a single Judge.

The Bailiff or other officer who shall have the execution of any writ of seizure and sale issued in such action shall, on being served with a copy of such order, obey the same.

118. Any money received by a first mortgagee or his transferee under any proceeding commenced in his name at law or in equity shall, after payment thereout of his costs, be applied in reduction or satisfaction of the moneys secured and, subject thereto, shall be disposed of according to the equities of the parties interested.

119. Whenever default has been made in payment of the principal or interest money secured by a mortgage and such default shall be continued for six months after the time for payment mentioned in the mortgage, the mortgagee or his transferee may make application in writing to the Registrar for an order for foreclosure; and such application shall state that such default has been made and has continued for the period aforesaid, and that the land mortgaged has been offered for sale at public auction by a licensed auctioneer after notice of sale served as hereinbefore provided, and that the amount of the highest bidding at such sale was not sufficient to satisfy the moneys secured by such mortgage, together with the expenses occasioned by such sale, and that notice in writing of the intention of the mortgagee or his transferee to make an application for foreclosure has been served on the mortgagor or his transferee, by being given to him or them, or by being left on the mortgaged land, or by the same being sent through the post office by a registered letter directed to him or them at his or their address appearing in the Register Book, and also that a like notice of such intention has been served on every person appearing by the Register Book to have any right, estate or interest, to or in the mortgaged land subsequently to such mortgage, by being given to him or sent through the post office by a registered letter directed to him at his address appearing in the Register Book.

Such application shall be accompanied by a certificate of the auctioneer by whom such land was put up for sale, and such other proof of the matters stated by the applicant as the Registrar may require, and the statements made in such application shall be verified by statutory declaration.

120. Upon such application the Registrar may cause notice to be published once in each of three successive weeks, in at least one newspaper published in the city of Kingston, offering such land for private sale, and shall appoint a time
(not less than one month from the date of the first of such advertisements) upon or after which the Registrar shall issue to such applicant an order for foreclosure, unless in the interval a sufficient amount has been obtained by the sale of such land to satisfy the principal and interest moneys secured, and all expenses occasioned by such sale and proceedings, and every such order for foreclosure under the hand of the Registrar when entered in the Register Book, shall have the effect of vesting in the mortgagee or his transferee the land mentioned in such order, free from all right and equity of redemption on the part of the mortgagor or of any person claiming through or under him subsequently to the mortgage; and such mortgagee or his transferee shall, upon such entry being made, be deemed a transferee of the mortgaged land, and become the proprietor thereof, and be entitled to receive a certificate of title to the same, in his own name, and the Registrar shall cancel the previous certificate of title and duplicate thereof and register a new certificate.

121.—(1) Upon production of a memorandum signed by the mortgagee or annuitant, or his transferees, and attested by a witness to the satisfaction of the Registrar, discharging the land from the whole or part of the moneys or annuity secured or discharging any part of the land from the whole of such moneys or annuity, the Registrar shall make an entry in the Register Book, stating the time at which it was made that such mortgage or charge is discharged wholly or partially, or that part of the land is discharged as aforesaid, as the case may be; and upon such entry being made, the land or the portion of the land described in such memorandum shall cease to be subject to or liable for such moneys or annuity, or for the part thereof mentioned in such entry as discharged, and the Registrar shall make a corresponding entry on the duplicate certificate of title when produced to him for that purpose.

(2) If a mortgagor produces to the Registrar evidence to the satisfaction of the Registrar—

(a) that the whole of the moneys secured on the mortgaged land and all arrears of interest thereon have been paid; and

(b) that the mortgagor is unable to produce a memorandum of the kind referred to in subsection (1) by reason of the fact that before such memorandum could be signed the mortgagee or his transferees died or left Jamaica or disappeared and could not be found, the Registrar shall make an entry in the Register Book, stating the time at which it was made that such mortgage is discharged; and upon such entry being made the land shall cease to be subject to or liable for such moneys and the Registrar shall make a corresponding entry on the duplicate certificate of title when produced to him for that purpose.

122. Upon proof to the satisfaction of the Registrar of the death of the annuitant, or of the occurrence of the event or circumstance upon which, in accordance with the provisions of any charge, the annuity thereby secured shall cease to be payable, and upon proof to the like satisfaction that all arrears of the annuity and all costs occasioned by non-payment thereof have been paid or satisfied, he shall make an entry in the Register Book that such annuity is satisfied and upon such entry being made the land shall cease to be subject to or liable for such annuity; and the Registrar shall make the like entry on the duplicate as is mentioned in section 121.

123. In case a mortgagee or his transferee is dead or absent from Jamaica or cannot be found and no person is known by the mortgagor to be authorized to give a receipt for the mortgage money at or after the date appointed for payment thereof, it shall be lawful for the mortgagor to pay such mortgage money, with all arrears of interest due thereon to the Accountant-General, in trust for the mortgagee or other person entitled thereto, and thereupon the interest upon such mortgage shall cease to run or accrue; and the Registrar shall, upon production of the receipt of the Accountant-General for the amount of the mortgage money and interest, make an entry in the Register Book discharging the land from such mortgage, stating the time at which such entry was made; and such entry shall be a valid discharge from such mortgage, and the Registrar shall make a corresponding entry on the duplicate grant or certificate of title when produced to him for that purpose.

The Accountant-General shall from time to time invest all mortgage money and interest which shall be received by him under this section, together with all dividends and interest which shall accrue thereon, in duly authorized Government securities in Jamaica, or otherwise as a Judge shall direct, for the benefit of the persons who shall for the time being be entitled thereto; but nothing herein contained shall render any Accountant-General in any manner liable for not investing the same respectively. The Registrar shall address to the Accountant-General requisitions to pay to such persons the moneys to which they may be entitled hereunder, and such moneys shall be issued in like manner as moneys are now issued from the Consolidated Fund.

124.—(1) A mortgagee of land under this Act while in possession thereof, shall, as against all prior incumbrances, if any, and as against the mortgagor, have by virtue of this

Act, power to make from time to time any of the following leases—

(a) an agricultural or occupation lease for any term not exceeding twenty-one years; and

(b) a building lease for any term not exceeding ninety-nine years.

(2) Every person making a lease under this section, may execute and do all assurances and things necessary or proper in that behalf.

(3) Every such lease shall be made to take effect in possession, not later than twelve months after its date.

(4) Every such lease shall reserve the best rent that can reasonably be obtained, regard being had to the circumstances of the case, but without any fine being taken.

(5) Every such lease shall be registered in the manner required by this Act for the registration of instruments affecting lands under this Act, if wholly executed in Jamaica within ninety days of its execution, or if wholly or partly executed out of Jamaica, within twelve months of its execution.

(6) Every such building lease shall be made in consideration of the lessee, or some person by whose direction the lease is granted, having erected, or agreeing to erect within not more than five years from the date of the lease, buildings new or additional, or having improved or repaired buildings, or agreeing to improve or repair buildings within that time, or having executed or agreeing to execute within that time on the land leased, an improvement for or in connection with building purposes.

(7) In any such building lease a pepper corn rent, or a nominal or other rent, less than the rent ultimately payable may be made payable for the first five years, or any less part of the term.

(8) A contract to make or accept a lease under this section may be enforced within six months of the making thereof by or against every person on whom the lease if granted, would be binding.

(9) This section applies only if and as far as a contrary intention is not expressed by the mortgagor and mortgagee in the mortgage, or otherwise in writing, and subject to the provisions therein contained.

(10) Nothing in this section shall prevent the mortgage from reserving to or conferring on the mortgagee, any further or other powers of leasing, or having reference to leasing; and any further or other powers so reserved or conferred, shall be exercisable, as far as may be, as if they were conferred by this section, and with all like incidents, effects and consequences, unless a contrary intention is expressed in the mortgage.

(11) Nothing in this section shall be construed to enable a mortgagee to make a lease for any longer term, or on any other conditions than such as could have been granted or imposed by the mortgagor with the concurrence of all the incumbrancers, if this section had not been passed.

(12) The provisions of this section referring to a lease shall be construed to extend and apply, as far as circumstances admit, to any letting, and to an agreement, whether in writing or not, for leasing or letting.

125.—(1) A mortgagee of any land under this Act shall have power, whenever he shall be entitled to sell the mortgaged property, or any part thereof, by writing under his hand, to appoint a receiver of the income of the mortgaged property, or any part thereof.

(2) The appointment shall be registered in manner hereinbefore provided, before or within thirty days of its being acted upon.

(3) The receiver shall be deemed to be the agent of the mortgagor; and the mortgagor shall be solely responsible for the receiver's acts or defaults, unless the mortgage deed otherwise provides.

(4) The receiver shall have power to demand and recover all the income of the property of which he is appointed receiver, by action, distress, or otherwise in the name either of the mortgagor, or of the mortgagee, to the full extent of the estate or interest which the mortgagor could dispose of, and to give effectual receipts accordingly for the same.

(5) A person paying money to the receiver shall not be concerned to enquire whether any case has happened to authorize the receiver to act.

(6) The receiver may be removed, and a new receiver may be appointed from time to time by the mortgagee, by writing under his hand and registered as aforesaid.

(7) The receiver shall be entitled to retain, out of any money received by him, for his remuneration and in satisfaction of all costs, charges and expenses incurred by him as receiver, a commission at such rate, not exceeding five per centum on the gross amount of all money received, as is specified in his appointment, and if no rate is so specified, then at the rate of five per centum on that gross amount, or at such higher rate as the court thinks fit to allow, on application made by him for that purpose.

(8) The receiver shall, if so directed in writing by the mortgagee, insure and keep insured against loss or damage by fire out of the money received by him, any building, effects or property comprised in the mortgage, whether affixed to the freehold or not, being of an insurable nature.

(9) The receiver shall apply all money received by him as follows, namely—

(a) in discharge of all rents, taxes, rates and outgoings whatever affecting the mortgaged property; and

(b) in keeping down all annual sums or other payments, and the interest on all principal sums having priority to the mortgage in right whereof he is receiver; and

(c) in payment of his commission and of the premiums on fire, life, or other insurances, if any, properly payable under the mortgage deed, or under this Act, and the cost of executing necessary or proper repairs directed in writing by the mortgagee; and

(d) in payment of the interest accruing due in respect of any principal money due under the mortgage, and shall pay the residue of the money received by him to the person who, but for the possession of the receiver, would have been entitled to receive the income of the mortgaged property, or who is otherwise entitled to that property.

Subdivision for Sale by Lots

126. Any proprietor subdividing any land under the operation of this Act for the purpose of selling the same in allotments shall deposit with the Registrar a map or diagram of such land exhibiting distinctly delineated all roads, streets, passages, thoroughfares, squares or reserves, appropriated or set apart for the use of purchasers and also all allotments into which the said land may be divided, marked with distinct marks or symbols, and showing the areas and declared to be accurate by a statutory declaration of a Commissioned Land Surveyor:

Provided always that when any such land is situated within any portion of a parish to which the provisions of the Local Improvements Act and any enactment amending the same shall apply the proprietor shall deposit with the Registrar copies, certified by the Clerk of the Board under that Act, of the map deposited with the Board and the resolution of the Board sanctioning the subdivision, and no transfer or other instrument effecting a subdivision of any such land otherwise than in accordance with the sanction of the Board shall be registered.

Execution of Instruments by Corporations

127. A corporation, for the purpose of transferring or otherwise dealing with any lands under the operation of this Act, or any lease, mortgage or charge, may, in lieu of signing the instrument for such purpose required, affix thereto its common seal.

The seal of the attorney of any corporation whose chief or head office of business shall be out of the Island whether such attorney shall have been already constituted, or shall hereafter be constituted, by a power of attorney under a seal purporting to be the common seal of the corporation giving the power, shall be deemed to be the common seal of such corporation within the meaning and for the purposes of this section.

Implied Powers and Covenants

128. Every covenant and power to be implied in any instrument by virtue of this Act may be negatived or modified by express declaration in the instrument, or endorsed thereon, and in the pleadings in any action for breach of any such covenant it shall be lawful to allege that the party against whom, or against whose real or personal representatives, such action is brought did so covenant, precisely in the same manner as if such covenant had been expressed in words at length in such instrument, any law or practice to the contrary notwithstanding; and every such implied covenant shall have the same force and effect as if it had been set out at length in such instrument; and where in any instrument there shall be more than one covenanter, such covenants as are by this Act declared to be implied in instruments of the like nature shall be construed to be several as well as joint.

Compulsory Registration

129.—(1) Where the Director of Surveys has completed a cadastral plan of the whole or any part of any parish, the Minister may by order declare that such cadastral plan has been completed.

(2) Every order made under this section shall—

(a) define the area in respect of which the cadastral plan has been completed; and

(b) specify the date on and after which the provisions of subsection (3) shall have effect in relation to all lands in that area.

(3) Where any order is made under this section no conveyance made on or after the date specified by such order shall be effective to pass by way of sale, exchange or gift an estate in fee simple absolute in any land within the area defined by such order unless such conveyance is made—

(a) by an instrument registered in accordance with the provisions of this Act; or

(b) on an application to bring such land under the operation of this Act.

Registration on Transmission

130.—(1) When registered land or any registered lease, mortgage, or charge of or upon registered land shall have been acquired by transmission the person claiming to have acquired the same shall apply in writing to the Registrar to be registered as the proprietor thereof and shall furnish such evidence of his claim as the Registrar shall deem to be necessary. Upon such claim being proved to his satisfaction the Registrar shall enter a memorandum of the change of proprietorship accordingly upon the certificate of title for the said land, and also (unless he has dispensed with the production thereof) upon the duplicate of the said certificate. Upon such entry being made the person so entitled by transmission shall become the transferee of such land, lease, mortgage or charge, and be deemed to be the proprietor thereof, and shall hold the same for the purposes for which it may be applicable by law and subject to any qualification under which the previous proprietor held the same, but for the purpose of any dealings therewith under the provisions of this Act he shall be deemed to be the absolute proprietor thereof.

(2) The title of every person becoming a transferee under this section shall, upon such entry being made, relate back to and be deemed to have arisen upon the happening of the event upon which such registered land, lease, mortgage or charge shall have been acquired by transmission as if there had been no interval of time between the happening of such event and such entry.

(3) The Registrar may enter a caveat for the protection of the interests of any other persons interested in such land, lease, mortgage or charge.

131. If there shall be any doubt, dispute or litigation under section 130 as to the true construction or legal validity or effect of any will or settlement relating to any registered land, lease, mortgage or charge, or if the person entitled to any registered land, lease, mortgage or charge under any will, settlement or instrument cannot be ascertained, a Judge may appoint a person to be registered as the representative of such land, lease, mortgage or charge and such person when registered shall become the transferee and be deemed to be the proprietor thereof for the purposes of this Act, subject, however, to any directions which shall from time to time be given by a Judge by order duly registered touching the disposition thereof or the dealing therewith. Such registration shall be made by the Registrar entering a memorandum of change of proprietorship as hereinbefore provided and of such order on the certificate of title and on the duplicate thereof.

132.—(1) If the personal representatives of a deceased proprietor of registered land assent to a devise thereof, or if such land has been appropriated to a legatee or other beneficiary under the provisions of the Real Property Representative Act, such devisee, legatee or beneficiary shall, if the personal representatives have not been registered as proprietors of the land, be entitled to apply to be registered as proprietor thereof. Such an application shall be made in like manner and the fees payable in respect thereof shall be the same as on an application for registration by the personal representatives.

(2) If the personal representatives have become registered as proprietors of the land no devisee, legatee or other beneficiary shall be registered as proprietor thereof unless and until a transfer thereof under the provisions of section 88 shall have been executed to him and duly registered anything contained in sections 5 and 6 of the said Real Property Representative Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

133. The Registrar before entering a memorandum of change of proprietorship by transmission in respect of land upon the certificate of title shall require the person applying for the entry to produce to him a receipt from the proper officer, or other evidence satisfactory to him showing that all estate duty payable in respect of the land has been paid, or a certificate from the proper officer showing that the land is not liable for the payment either immediately or at all of any estate duty. Any liability for estate duty not immediately payable shall be noted on the certificate of title.

Registration of Transfer on Sale under a Writ or Order and of Vesting Orders

134. No execution registered prior to or after the commencement of this Act shall bind, charge or affect any land or any lease, mortgage or charge, but the Registrar, on being served with a copy of any writ or order of sale issued out of any court of competent jurisdiction, or of any judgment, decree or order of such court, accompanied by a statement signed by any party interested, or his attorney, solicitor or agent, specifying the land, lease, mortgage or charge, sought to be affected thereby, shall, after marking upon such copy the time of such service, enter the same in the Register Book; and after any land, lease, mortgage or charge, so specified shall have been sold under any such writ, judgment, decree or order, the Registrar shall, on receiving a certificate of the sale thereof in such one of the Forms A, B, or C in the Twelfth Schedule hereto as the case requires (which certificate shall have the same effect as a transfer made by the proprietor), enter such certificate in the Register Book; and on such entry being made the purchaser shall become the transferee, and be deemed the proprietor of such land, lease, mortgage or charge:

Provided always that until such service as aforesaid no sale or transfer under any such writ or order shall be valid as against a purchaser for valuable consideration, notwithstanding such writ or order had been actually issued at the time of the purchase, and notwithstanding the purchaser had actual or constructive notice of the issuing of such writ or order.

Upon production to the Registrar of sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of any writ or order a copy whereof shall have been served as aforesaid, he shall make an entry in the Register Book of a memorandum to that effect, and on such entry being made such writ or order shall be deemed to be satisfied.

Every such writ or order shall cease to bind, charge or affect any land, lease, mortgage or charge, specified as aforesaid, unless a certificate of the sale under such writ shall be left for entry upon the register within three months from the day on which such copy was served, or such longer time as the court shall direct.

135. Whenever any person interested in land under the operation of this Act, or any estate or interest therein, shall appear to the Supreme Court or to any Resident Magistrate’s Court to be a trustee of such land, estate or interest, within the intent or meaning of any law or statute now or hereafter to be in force relating to trusts and trustees, and any vesting order shall be made in the premises by the said court, the Registrar, on being served with such order, or an office copy thereof, shall enter in the Register Book on the certificate of title and duplicate instrument (if any) the date of the said order, the time of its production to him, and the name and addition of the person in whom the said order shall purport to vest the said land, estate or interest; and upon such entry being made in the Register Book, such person shall become the transferee, and be deemed to be the proprietor thereof.

Unless and until such entry shall be made the said order shall have no effect or operation in transferring or otherwise vesting the said land, estate or interest.

Registration of Marriage of Female Proprietor and of Transmission by death of Party having an Interest

136. The Registrar, upon production of sufficient proof of the marriage of a female registered as a proprietor of any land or of any lease, mortgage or charge shall register the marriage by endorsing the certificate of title with a note of the fact of the marriage.

137. Whenever the fact of any marriage has been so endorsed as aforesaid, then upon the death of the wife leaving her husband entitled as tenant by the curtesy of land comprised in the certificate of the title upon which the said endorsement has been made, and in any case upon the death of any person registered with any other person as joint proprietor of any land or of any lease or charge or as joint proprietors of any mortgage owned on a joint account in equity, the Registrar, on the application of the husband, or person entitled by survivorship as aforesaid, and proof to his satisfaction of such events as aforesaid, may register such applicant as the proprietor thereof, and he shall, upon being registered in the manner herein prescribed for the registration of a like estate or interest, become the transferee of such land, lease, mortgage or charge, and be deemed the proprietor thereof, but as regards any tenancy by the curtesy for the lifetime only of such husband.

Bankruptcy

138. When upon the bankruptcy of the proprietor of any land, lease, mortgage or charge, the estate or interest of such proprietor in such land, lease, mortgage or charge, vests in the trustee in bankruptcy, such trustee shall be entitled to be registered in respect of the same; and the Registrar, upon the receipt of an office copy of the provisional or absolute order in bankruptcy against such proprietor, accompanied by an application in writing under the hand of the trustee to be registered in respect of any land, lease, mortgage or charge, of such bankrupt therein described, shall enter in the Register Book, upon the folium constituted by the certificate of title of such land, a memorandum notifying such order in bankruptcy; and upon such entry being made the trustee shall become the transferee, and be deemed to be the proprietor of such land, lease, mortgage or charge, estate or interest, and shall hold the same subject to the equities upon and subject to which the bankrupt held the same; but for the purpose of any dealings therewith under the provisions of this Act such trustee shall be deemed to be the absolute proprietor thereof. If the trustee shall omit or neglect to make the application aforesaid, or to lodge a caveat under the general provision relating to caveats hereinafter contained, within seven days after the Registrar shall have notified to him, by a letter delivered or registered, that application has been made for the registration of an instrument concerning property (to be in such notice described) standing in the Register Book in the name of the bankrupt, such instrument may be registered, and thereupon shall not be affected by the order of adjudication either at law or in equity.

If a caveat shall be lodged pursuant to such notice the same shall be dealt with, and be subject to the same provisions as other caveats with this variation, that the fourteen days’ notice required in general cases need not actually be given to the caveator, but shall be deemed to have been given on the day on which the caveat was lodged.

Caveats

139. Any beneficiary or other person claiming any estate or interest in land under the operation of this Act, or in any lease, mortgage or charge, under any unregistered instruments, or by devolution in law or otherwise, may lodge a caveat with the Registrar in the Form in the Thirteenth Schedule, or as near thereto as circumstances will permit, forbidding the registration of any person as transferee or proprietor of, and of any instrument affecting, such estate or interest, either absolutely or until after notice of the intended registration or dealing be given to the intended caveator, or unless such instrument be expressed to be subject to the claim of the caveator, as may be required in such caveat.

Every such caveat shall state the name and addition of the person by whom or on whose behalf the same is lodged, and except in case of a caveat lodged by order of the Supreme Court, or a Judge thereof, or by the Registrar as in this Act provided, shall be signed by the caveator or his agent.

The person lodging such caveat shall, if required support the same by a statutory declaration, stating the nature of the title under which the claim is made, and may withdraw any such caveat.

No caveat shall be received—

(a) unless some address or place within the city of Kingston shall be appointed therein as the place at which notice and proceedings relating to such caveat may be served;

(b) unless some definite estate or interest be specified and claimed by the caveator; and if such claim be under any document or writing, unless such caveat is accompanied by a copy of such document or writing, or in cases in which there is a mortgage or lease on the title sought to be affected, unless it is stated whether the claim is against the registered proprietor of the land or of the mortgage or of the lease. A caveator may, however, give an additional address out of the said city at the foot of such caveat, in which case a registered letter shall be sent through the post office to such address on the same day as that on which any notice relating to such caveat is served in Kingston. Every notice relating to such caveat, and any proceedings in respect thereof if served at the address or place appointed as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be duly served.

140. Upon the receipt of any caveat under this Act, the Registrar shall notify the same to the person against whose application to be registered as proprietor, or as the case may be, to the proprietor against whose title to deal with the estate or interest such caveat has been lodged, and such applicant or proprietor or any person claiming under any transfer or other instrument signed by the proprietor may, if he thinks fit, summon the caveator to attend before the Supreme Court, or a Judge in Chambers, to show cause why such caveat should not be removed, and such Court or Judge may, upon proof that such caveator has been summoned, make such order in the premises, either ex parte or otherwise, and as to costs as to such Court or Judge may seem fit.

Except in the case of a caveat lodged by or on behalf of a beneficiary under disability claiming under any will or settlement, or by the Registrar, every caveat lodged against a proprietor shall be deemed to have lapsed as to the land affected by the transfer or other dealing, upon the expiration of fourteen days after notice given to the caveator that such proprietor has applied for the registration of a transfer or other dealing, unless in the meantime such application has been withdrawn.

A caveat shall not be renewed by or on behalf of the same person in respect of the same estate or interest, but if before the expiration of the said period of fourteen days or such further period as is specified in any order made under this section the caveator or his agent appears before a Judge, and gives such undertaking or security, or lodges such sum in court, as such Judge may consider sufficient to indemnify every person against any damage that may be sustained by reason of any disposition of the property being delayed, then and in such case such Judge may direct the Registrar to delay registering any dealing with the land, lease, mortgage or charge, for a further period to be specified in such order, or may make such other order as may be just, and such order as to costs as may be just.

141. In every case in which prior to a person becoming a registered proprietor of any land, lease, mortgage or charge under this Act, an order of sequestration of his estate, or an adjudication in bankruptcy shall have been or shall hereafter be made, and any instrument affecting such land, lease, mortgage or charge, is presented for registration, the Registrar shall forthwith notify to the trustee of such estate, by a letter delivered or registered (in which shall be mentioned the bankrupt's name) that application has been made for the registration of such instrument; and unless a caveat forbidding such registration shall be lodged within seven days after the service or posting of such letter such instrument may be registered, and thereupon shall not be affected by such order of sequestration or adjudication in bankruptcy either at law or in equity.

If a caveat shall be lodged under this section, the same shall be dealt with and be subject to the same provisions as if it had been a caveat lodged under section 140, with this variation that the fourteen days' notice therein mentioned need not actually be given to the caveator, but shall be deemed to have been given on the day on which the caveat was lodged.

142. So long as any caveat shall remain in force prohibiting any registration or dealing with the estate or interest in respect to which such caveat may be lodged, the Registrar shall not enter in the Register Book any change in the proprietorship or any transfer or other instrument presented for registration subsequent to the date on which such caveat was lodged purporting to transfer or otherwise deal with or affect the estate or interest in respect of which such caveat may be lodged, unless such transfer or other instrument or dealing be expressly exempted from the operation of the caveat or unless the caveator shall consent thereto in writing.

143. Any person lodging any caveat with the Registrar, either against bringing land under this Act or otherwise, without reasonable cause, shall be liable to make to any person who may have sustained damage thereby such compensation as a Judge on a summons in Chambers shall deem just and order.

Search Certificates and Stay Orders

144. Any person desiring information as to whether a proprietor is able to deal with the land comprised in his certificate free from obstruction caused by any caveat, instrument lodged for registration, order, injunction, or other cause known to the Registrar, but not appearing upon the certificate, may sign an application for search certificate in the form in the Fourteenth Schedule; and on payment of the fee in that behalf provided, the Registrar shall cause the necessary searches and inquiries to be made for the purpose of affording the information required; and the result thereof shall be certified in the form in the said Schedule contained by affixing the seal of the Office with the initials of the officer attaching the same, and the day, hour, and minute at which the seal is affixed.

145. Such search certificate shall refer to the dealing or encumbrance last noted on the certificate of title for the purpose of showing the state of the register at the time of issuing the search certificate, but not of informing the person applying for the search certificate as to what is upon the certificate of title; and such person shall be entitled to inspect the certificate of title, and shall be deemed to know all of which an inspection of the certificate of title would have informed him.

146. 154. Upon the appearance before the Court or a Judge of any person summoned or brought up by virtue of a warrant as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to examine such person upon oath and, in case it shall seem proper, to order such person to deliver up such certificate of title or instrument as aforesaid and, upon refusal or neglect by such person to deliver up the same pursuant to such order, to commit such person to prison for a period not exceeding six months unless such certificate or instrument shall be sooner delivered up; and in such case, or in case such person cannot be found so that a requisition and summons may be served upon him as hereinbefore directed, the Registrar shall, if the circumstances of the case require it, issue to the proprietor of the land such certificate of title as is herein provided to be issued in the case of any certificate of title being lost or destroyed, and shall enter in the Register Book notice of the issuing of such certificate, and the circumstances under which the same was issued, and thereupon the certificate of title or instrument as aforesaid, so refused or neglected to be delivered up as aforesaid, shall be deemed for all purposes to be null and void as far as the same shall be inconsistent with the certificate or instrument so issued in lieu thereof.

(b) to amend or cancel any instrument, memorandum or entry relating to the land in such manner as appears proper to the court or a Judge.

159. In all actions and suits brought under this Act, the same rules of procedure and practice shall apply, and there shall be the same right of appeal, as shall be in force or exist for the time being in respect of ordinary actions in the court in which such action may be tried:

Provided that rules of court may be made for regulating proceedings in the Supreme Court under this Act, and from time to time to rescind, alter or add to such rules and orders.

162. Any person deprived of land, or of any estate or interest in land, in consequence of fraud, or through the bringing of such land under the operation of this Act, or by the registration of any other person as proprietor of such land, estate or interest, or in consequence of any error or misdescription in any certificate of title, or in any entry or memorandum in the Register Book, may bring and prosecute an action for the recovery of damages against the person on whose application such land was brought under the operation of this Act, or such erroneous registration was made, or who acquired title to the estate or interest through such fraud, error or misdescription:

Provided always that, except in the case of fraud or of error occasioned by any omission, misrepresentation or misdescription, in the application of such person to bring such land under the operation of this Act, or to be registered as proprietor of such land, estate or interest, or in any instrument signed by him, such person shall upon a transfer of such land bona fide for valuable consideration, cease to be liable for the payment of any damage beyond the value of the consideration actually received, which damage but for such transfer might have been recovered from him under the provisions herein contained; and in such last mentioned case, and also in case the person against whom such action for damages is directed to be brought as aforesaid shall be dead, or shall have been adjudged bankrupt, or cannot be found within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, then and in any such case, such damages, with costs of action, may be recovered out of the Assurance Fund by action against the Registrar as nominal defendant:

Provided that in estimating such damages, the value of all buildings and other improvements erected or made subsequent to the making of a contract of sale binding on the parties thereto, or subsequent to the deprivation shall be excluded.

163. Nothing in this Act contained shall be so interpreted as to leave subject to an action for the recovery of the land, or to an action for recovery of damages as aforesaid, or for deprivation of the estate or interest in respect to which he is registered as proprietor, any purchaser bona fide for valuable consideration of land under the operation of this Act, on the ground that the proprietor through or under whom he claims may have been registered as proprietor through fraud or error, or may have derived from or through a person registered as proprietor through fraud or error, and this whether such fraud or error shall consist in wrong description of the boundaries or of the parcels of any land, or otherwise howsoever.

164. Any person sustaining loss through any omission, mistake or misfeasance, of the Registrar, or any other officer or clerk, in the execution of their respective duties under the provisions of this Act or by an error, omission or misdescription in any certificate of title, or any entry or memorandum in the Register Book, or by the registration of any other person as proprietor, and who by the provisions of this Act is barred from bringing an action for the recovery of the land, estate or interest, may, in any case in which the remedy by action for recovery of damages as herein provided is inapplicable, bring an action against the Registrar as nominal defendant for recovery of damages.

Provided that in estimating such damages, the value of all buildings and other improvements erected or made subse-
Persons claiming shall before action brought apply to Registrar in writing for compensation.

165. Any person sustaining loss or damage in any case in which he is entitled to bring an action to recover damages under the provisions of sections 162 and 164 shall before commencing proceedings make application in writing to the Registrar for compensation, and such application shall be supported by affidavits or statutory declaration. If the Registrar, with the approval of the Attorney-General, admits the claim or any part thereof and certifies accordingly to the Minister, the Minister may if he thinks fit issue a warrant to the Accountant-General for the amount so certified to be paid out of the Assurance Fund, and the Registrar shall be entitled, as though he were a person deprived of land, to proceed under section 162 against the person liable under the said section for the amount so paid and any amount recovered shall be lodged with the Accountant-General to the credit of the Assurance Fund.

166. In any case in which an action for recovery of damages is permitted to be brought against the Registrar as nominal defendant, notice in writing of such action and of the cause thereof shall be served upon such nominal defendant, one month at least before the commencement of such action, and if in any such action judgment be given in favour of the nominal defendant, or the plaintiff discontinue or become nonsuit, the plaintiff shall be liable to pay the full costs of defending such action, and the same, when taxed, shall be recovered in the name of the nominal defendant by the like process of execution as in other actions.

167. If in any such action the plaintiff recover final judgment against such nominal defendant, then the Judge before whom such action may be tried, or the Supreme Court, shall certify the fact of such judgment, and the amount of damages and costs recovered; and the amount of such damages and costs shall be paid to the person recovering the same, and shall be charged to the account of the Assurance Fund; and in case the balance to the credit of the Assurance Fund shall be inadequate to defray the amount specified, such sum as may be necessary for that purpose shall be advanced out of the Consolidated Fund, and the amount so advanced shall be repaid from the Assurance Fund as the same may thereafter accrue.

168. No action for recovery of damages sustained through deprivation of land, or of any estate or interest in land, shall lie or be sustained against the Registrar or against the Assurance Fund, or against the person upon whose application such land was brought under the operation of this Act, or against the person who applied to be registered as proprietor in respect of such land, unless such action shall be commenced within the period of six years from the date of such deprivation:

Provided, nevertheless, that any person being under the disability of coverture, infancy or unsoundness of mind, may bring such action within six years from the date on which such disability shall have ceased; so, however, that such action be brought within thirty years next after the date of such deprivation. The plaintiff in any such action, at whatever time it may be brought, and the plaintiff in any such action for the recovery of land shall be nonsuited in any case in which the deprivation complained of may have been occasioned through the bringing of land under the operation of this Act, if it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Judge before whom such action shall be tried that such plaintiff, or the persons through or under whom he claims title, had actual notice that application had been made to bring such land under the operation of this Act, and had willfully, or collusively or negligently omitted to lodge a caveat forbidding the same, or had allowed such caveat to lapse.

169. Whenever any amount has been paid out of the Assurance Fund on account of any person who may be dead such amount may be recovered from the estate of such person by action or suit against his personal representatives in the name of the Registrar; and whenever any such amount has been paid on account of a person who shall have been adjudged bankrupt, the same shall be considered to be a debt due from the estate of such bankrupt, and a certificate signed by the Accountant-General certifying the fact of such payment out of the Assurance Fund, and delivered to the trustee, shall be sufficient proof of such debt; and whenever any amount has been paid out of the Assurance Fund on account of any person who may have absconded or who cannot be found within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, and may have left any real or personal estate within Jamaica, it shall be lawful for the said Court or a Judge thereof, upon the application of the Registrar, and upon the production of a certificate signed by the Accountant-General certifying that the amount has been paid in satisfaction of a judgment against the Registrar as nominal defendant, to allow the Registrar to sign judgment against such person forthwith for the amount so paid out of the Assurance Fund, together with the costs of the application; and such judgment shall be final, and signed in like manner as a final judgment by confession or default in an action and execution may issue immediately; and if such person shall not have left real or personal estate within Jamaica sufficient to satisfy the amount for which execution may have been issued as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Registrar to recover such amount, or the unrecovered balance thereof, by action against such person at any time thereafter, if he shall be found within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

170. The Assurance Fund shall not under any circumstances be liable for compensation for any loss, damage or deprivation occasioned by the breach by a proprietor of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive, nor in any case in which such loss or deprivation has been occasioned by any land being included in the same certificate of title with other land through misdescription of boundaries or parcels of any land, unless in the case last aforesaid it shall be proved that the person liable for compensation and damages is dead, or has absconded, or has been adjudged bankrupt, or the bailiff shall certify that such person is unable to pay the full amount awarded in any action for the recovery of such compensation and damages:

Provided always that any amount paid out of the Assurance Fund on account of any person who may have absconded may be recovered from such person; by action in the name of the Registrar at any time thereafter, if such person shall be found within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court:

Provided also that the said fund shall be liable for such amounts only as the bailiff shall fail to recover from the person liable as aforesaid.
