PREFACE

Although these rules are long overdue, they are, in a sense, quite timely. Various steps are being taken to modernize and improve the Court system in Jamaica, and the implementation of these rules is a vital step in this process.

As Part I indicates, the “overriding objective” of these rules is to enable the Court “to deal with cases justly”. The rules seek to achieve this objective in various ways, including:

- Simplifying the language and procedures used in the Courts so that members of the public, in particular, can more easily understand the process;
- Reducing delays and adjournments so that matters will be disposed of expeditiously;
- Increasing the Court’s role in the management of cases; and
- Allowing for greater use of modern technology.

The Rules Committee recognizes that this is an ongoing process. These rules will require some fundamental changes in the way in which civil proceedings in the Supreme Court and Court of Appeal are pursued, and no doubt flaws and ways to improve them will be identified. We hope however, that these rules will represent a big step forward in the administration of justice in Jamaica.

Lensley Wolfe, O.J.
Chief Justice of Jamaica &
Chairman of the Rules Committee of the Supreme Court

Many persons contributed to the preparation of these rules. I would, like to acknowledge, in particular, the contributions of Justice Dick Greenslade of the UK, Michael Hylton, Q.C., Charles Piper, Carol Aina, and the members of the various drafting sub-committees, the members of the Rules Committee and the many members of the bar who made useful comments and suggestions as the rules were developed.

Claim for specified sum of money

- 12.8 (1) The fact that the claimant also claims costs and interest at a specified rate does not prevent a claim from being a claim for a specified sum of money.
- (2) A claimant who claims a specified sum of money together with interest at an unspecified rate may apply to have judgment entered for either -
- (a) the sum of money claimed together with interest at the statutory rate from the date of the claim to the date of entering judgment; or

 - (i) the court may not enter judgment against that defendant; and
 - (ii) the court must deal with the application at the same time as it disposes of the claim against the other defendants
- (3) Where a claim for delivery of goods is made against more than one defendant (with or without any other claim), the claimant may not enforce any judgment for delivery entered under this

Part against a defendant unless -

 - (ii) (in all other cases) at the time and rate specified in the request for judgment.

- (4) Default judgment where the claim is for some other remedy shall be in such form as the court considers the claimant to be entitled to on the particulars of claim.
- (5) An application for the court to determine the terms of the judgment under paragraph (4) need not be on notice but must be supported by evidence on affidavit and rule 11.15 (service of application where order made on application made without notice) does not apply.

Interest

- 12.11 (1) A default judgment shall include judgment for interest for the period claimed where -

(Part 47 deals with variation of the terms of a judgment as to time and method of payment.)

Cases where court must set aside default judgment

- 13.2 (1) The court must set aside a judgment entered under Part 12 if judgment was wrongly entered because -
- (a) in the case of a failure to file an acknowledgment of service, any of the conditions in rule 12.4 was not satisfied;
 - (b) in the case of judgment for failure to defend, any of the conditions in rule 12.5 was not satisfied; or

- (c) the whole of the claim was satisfied before judgment was entered.
- (2) The court may set aside judgment under this rule on or without an application.

Cases where court may set aside or vary default judgment

- 13.3 (1) The court may set aside or vary a judgement entered under Part 12 if the defendant has a real prospect of successfully defending the claim.
(18/9/2006)
- (2) In considering whether to set aside or vary a judgment under this rule, the court must consider whether the defendant has:
(18/9/2006)
- (a) applied to the court as soon as is reasonably practicable after finding out that judgment has been entered.
 - (b) given a good explanation for the failure to file an acknowledgement of service or a defence, as the case may be.
- (3) Where this rule gives the court power to set aside a judgment, the court may instead vary it.
(Rule 26.1(3) enables the court to attach conditions to any order.)

Applications to vary or set aside judgment - procedure

- 13.4 (1) An application may be made by any person who is directly affected by the entry of judgment.
- (2) The application must be supported by evidence on affidavit.
 - (3) The affidavit must exhibit a draft of the proposed defence.

Court to impose condition as to filing of defence

- 13.5 Where judgment is set aside under rule 13.3, the general rule is that the order must be conditional upon the defendant filing and serving a defence by a specified date.

Hearing to be treated as case management conference

- 13.6 (1) When judgment is set aside under rule 13.3 the court must treat the hearing as a case management conference unless it is not possible to deal with the matter justly at that time.

- (2) Where it is not possible to deal with the matter justly at that time, the registry must fix a date, time and place for a case management conference and give notice to the parties.

(Part 26 deals with the powers of the court on a case management conference, Part 27 deals with the procedure for case management conferences.)

Abandoned claims to be restored if judgment set aside

- 13.7 Where the claimant has abandoned any remedy sought in the claim form in order to enter a default judgment, the abandoned claim is restored if judgment is set aside.

(Rule 9.3 specifies the time for filing an acknowledgment of service, rule 65.8 deals with assessed costs.)
- (6) The court may allow a party to amend or withdraw an admission.

Satisfaction

- 14.2 (1) Where the defendant pays the claimant the sum claimed together with interest (if claimed) and the fixed costs as set out on the claim form within the period for filing an acknowledgment of service under rule 9.3 -

Admissions where party a minor or patient

- 14.3 Judgment may not be entered on an admission where -
- (a) the defendant is a minor or patient; or

Admission of part of claim for money only

- 14.7 (1) This rule applies where -
- (a) the only remedy which the claimant is seeking is payment of money;

- (7) Where the claimant files notice under paragraph (2) that the claim is to continue, the registry must fix a date, time and place for a case management conference.
- (Part 27 sets out the procedure relating to a case management conference, rule 65.4 deals with fixed costs.)

Admission of liability to pay whole of claim for unspecified sum of money

- 14.8 (1) This rule applies where -
- (a) the only remedy the claimant seeks is the payment of money;
 - (b) the amount of the claim is not specified;
 - (c) in the acknowledgment of service the defendant admits liability -
 - (i) to pay the whole of the claim; and
 - (ii) does not offer to pay a specified sum of money or a proportion of the claim in satisfaction of the claim; and

- (5) Where -

- (4) The general rule is that the court should enter judgment under paragraph (3) without a hearing.
- (5) Where the court decides to deal with the matter at a hearing, it must give the each party at least 7 days notice of the date, time and place of the hearing.
- (6) Where there is a hearing, the court must determine whether to make an order for the costs of the application, by whom the costs should be paid and assess such costs under rule 65.8.

Assessment of Damages

Contents of this Part

Scope of this Part	Rule 16.1
Assessment of damages after default judgment	Rule 16.2
Assessment of damages after admission of liability on claim for unspecified sum of money	Rule 16.3
Assessment of damages after a direction for trial of issue of quantum	Rule 16.4

Scope of this Part

- 16.1 This Part deals with the procedure by which a hearing to assess damages is fixed.

Assessment of damages after default judgment

- 16.2 (1) An application for a default judgment to be entered under rule 12.10(1) (b), must state-
- (a) whether or not the claimant is in a position to prove the amount of the damages; and, if so
 - (b) the claimant's estimate of the time required to deal with the assessment.
- (2) Unless the application states that the claimant is not in a position to prove the amount of damages, the registry must fix a date for the assessment of damages and give the claimant not less than 14 days notice of the date, time and place fixed for the hearing.
- (3) A claimant who is not in a position to prove damages must state the period of time that will elapse before this can be done.
- (4) The registry must then fix:
- (a) The date for the hearing of the assessment;
 - (b) A date by which standard disclosure and inspection must take place;

Assessment of damages after admission of liability on claim for unspecified sum of money

- 16.3
- (1) This rule applies where the defendant has admitted liability for the whole or a specified proportion of a claim for an unspecified sum of money.
 - (2) An application for judgment to be entered for damages to be assessed on an admission under Part 14 must -
 - (a) state whether or not the claimant is in a position to prove the amount of damages; and, if so
 - (b) give an estimate of the time required to deal with the assessment.
 - (3) Unless the application states that the claimant is not in a position to prove the amount of damages, the registry must fix a date for the assessment of damages and give the parties not less than 14 days notice of the date, time and place fixed for the hearing.
 - (4) A claimant who is not in a position to prove damages must state the period of time that will elapse before this can be done.
 - (5) The registry must then fix either -
 - (a)
 - (i) a period within which the assessment of damages will take place, and
 - (ii) a date by which the listing questionnaire is to be filed at the registry by the claimant; or
 - (b) a case management conference, and give notice to the parties.
 - (6) The defendant is entitled to cross examine any witness called on behalf of the claimant and to make submissions to the court but is not entitled to call any evidence unless the defendant has filed a defence setting out the facts the defendant seeks to prove.
 - (7) The court must also deal with any request under Part 14 for time to pay.

Assessment of damages after direction for trial of issue of quantum

- 16.4 (1) This rule applies where the court makes a direction for the trial of an issue of quantum.
- (2) The direction may be given at -
- (a) a case management conference;
 - (b) the hearing of an application for summary judgment; or

- (4) The court must also fix -
- (a) a date by which the claimant is to file the listing questionnaire at the registry; and

- (4) The court may grant an interim remedy whether or not there has been a claim for a final remedy of that kind.
- (5) The Chief Justice may issue a practice direction as to the procedure for applying for an interim order including, in particular, interim injunctions, search orders and freezing orders.

- (5) On granting an order under paragraph (4) the court must -

- (6) When an order is made under paragraph (4), the applicant must serve the respondent personally with -
- (a) the application for an interim order;
 - (b) the evidence on affidavit in support of the application;

 - (e) the following conditions are satisfied -
 - (i) the claimant is seeking an order for possession of land (whether or not any other order is also being sought); and
 - (ii) the court is satisfied that, if the case went to trial, the defendant would be held liable (even if the claim for possession fails) to pay the claimant a sum of money for rent or for the defendant's use and occupation of the land while the claim for possession was pending.
- (2) In addition, in a claim for personal injuries the court may make an order for the interim payment of damages only if the defendant is -

 - (b) paragraph (2) is satisfied in relation to each defendant.
- (4) The court must not order an interim payment of more than a reasonable proportion of the likely amount of the final judgment.

Non-disclosure of interim payment

- 17.8 Neither the fact nor the amount of any interim payment is to be disclosed to the court until all issues of liability and quantum have been determined.

Powers of court where it has made order for interim payment

- 17.9 (1) Where a defendant has been ordered to make an interim payment, or has in fact voluntarily made an interim payment, the court may make an order to adjust the interim payment.

Scope of this part

- 18.1 (1) This part deals with ancillary claims.
- (2) An “ancillary claim” is any claim other than a claim by a claimant against a defendant or a claim for a set off contained in a defence and includes -
- (a) a counterclaim by a defendant against the claimant or against the claimant and some other person;
 - (b) a claim by a defendant against any person (whether or not already a party) for contribution or indemnity or some other remedy; and

- (c) a claim by an ancillary defendant against any other person (whether or not already a party).
- (3) In this Part -
“ancillary claimant” means a person who makes an ancillary claim; and “ancillary defendant” means the defendant to that claim.
- (4) Where an ancillary defendant makes an ancillary claim against a further person that person is to be called the “second (or as the case may be) ancillary defendant”.

Ancillary claim to be treated as claim for purposes of these Rules

- 18.2 (1) An ancillary claim is to be treated as if it were a claim for the purposes of these Rules, except as provided by this Part.
- (2) Particulars of an ancillary claim must be contained in or served with the ancillary claim form in form 10.
- (3) An ancillary claim form must include -
- (a) the ancillary claimant’s address for service in accordance with rule 3.11; and
 - (b) a certificate of truth in accordance with rule 3.12.
- (4) The following rules do not apply to ancillary claims -
- (a) rules 8.14 and 8.15 (time within which a claim may be served);
 - (17/2/2003) (b) Part 12 (default judgment) applies to an ancillary claim only if it is a counterclaim
 - (c) Part 14 (admissions) other than rule 14.1(1) and (2) (which provide that a party may admit in writing the truth of another party’s case), rule 14.3 (admissions where a party a patient or minor) and rule 14.4 (admission by notice in writing - application for judgment); and
 - (d) rules 27.3(1) - (5) (case management).
- (Rule 18.11 makes special provision for judgment on an ancillary claim other than a counterclaim.)
- (5) Where the ancillary claim is a counterclaim by the defendant against a claimant (with or without any other person) the claimant is not required to file an acknowledgment of service and therefore Part 9 (Acknowledgment of Service) does not apply to the claimant.

Defendant's claim for contribution or indemnity from co-defendant

- 18.3 (1) A defendant who has filed an acknowledgment of service or a defence may make an ancillary claim for contribution or indemnity against another defendant by -
- (17/2/2003) (a) filing a notice in form 10 containing a statement of the nature and grounds of the claim; and
- (b) serving the notice on the other defendants.
- (2) Rule 18.5 does not apply to an ancillary claim under this rule.
(Part 9 deals with filing an acknowledgment of service and Part 10 with filing a defence.)

Adding other defendants to counterclaim

- 18.4 (1) Where the defendant to the claim says that someone else is liable on the counterclaim as well as the claimant, the defendant may add that other person as a defendant to the counterclaim.
- (2) Where a person so added is not already a party, the defendant must add that other person's name to the title of the claim as "defendant to the counterclaim".
(Rule 18.12 deals with the documents to be served on a defendant who is not already a party.)

Procedure for making ancillary claim

- 18.5 (1) A defendant may make an ancillary claim without the court's permission if -
- (a) in the case of a counterclaim, it is filed with the defence; or
- (b) in any other case, the ancillary claim form is filed before or at the same time as the defence is filed.
(This rule does not apply to an ancillary claim under rule 18.4.)
- (2) Where either -
- (a) rule 18.3; or
- (b) paragraph (1),
- does not apply, an ancillary claim may be made only if the court gives permission.
- (3) An application for permission under paragraph (2) may be made without notice unless the court directs otherwise.
- (4) The applicant must attach to the application a draft of the proposed ancillary claim form and ancillary particulars of claim.

- (5) The ancillary claim is made when the ancillary claim form is issued.
(18/9/2006) ("Ancillary claim" is defined in rule 18.1(1).)

Service of ancillary claim form

- 18.6 (1) An ancillary claim which may be made without the court's permission must be served on the person against whom it is made within 14 days after the date the defendant files a defence.
- (2) The ancillary claimant must serve with the ancillary claim form -
- (a) a form for defending the claim; and
 - (b) a form of acknowledgment of service.
- (3) Where the court gives permission to make an ancillary claim it must at the same time give directions as to the service of the ancillary claim form.
- (4) A copy of the ancillary claim form and ancillary particulars of claim (if any) must be served on all other parties.

Counterclaim may survive claim

- 18.7 The defendant may continue a counterclaim even if -
- (a) the court gives judgment on the claim for the claimant and does not dismiss the counterclaim; or
 - (b) the claim is stayed, discontinued or dismissed.

Defence to ancillary claim

- 18.8 (1) A person against whom an ancillary claim is made may file a defence.
- (2) The period for filing a defence is the period of 42 days after the date of service of the ancillary claim.
- (3) Subject to rule 18.2(4)(b), the rules relating to a defence to a claim apply to a defence to an ancillary claim.
- (4) An ancillary defence must include -
- (a) the ancillary defendant's address for service in accordance with rule 3.11; and
 - (b) a certificate of truth in accordance with rule 3.12.

Matters relevant to the question whether an ancillary claim should be dealt with separately from the main claim

- 18.9 (1) This rule applies when the court is considering whether to -
- (a) permit an ancillary claim to be made;
 - (b) dismiss an ancillary claim; or
 - (c) require the ancillary claim to be dealt with separately from the claim.
- (Rules 26.1(f) and (i) deal with the court's power to decide the order in which issues are to be tried or to order that part of the proceedings be dealt with separately.)
- (2) The court must have regard to all the circumstances of the case including-
- (a) the connection between the ancillary claim and the claim;
 - (b) whether the ancillary claimant is seeking substantially the same remedy which some other party is claiming from the ancillary claimant;
 - (c) whether the facts in the ancillary claim are substantially the same, or closely connected with, the facts in the claim; and
 - (d) whether the ancillary claimant wants the court to decide any question connected with the subject matter of the proceedings -
 - (i) not only between the existing parties but also between existing parties and the proposed ancillary claim defendant; or
 - (ii) to which the proposed ancillary defendant is already a party but also in some further capacity.

Effect of service of ancillary claim form

- 18.10 (1) A person on whom an ancillary claim form is served becomes a party to the proceedings if that person is not already a party.
- (2) When an ancillary claim form is served on an existing party for the purpose of requiring the court to decide a question against that party in a further capacity, that party also becomes a party in the further capacity specified in the claim form.

Special provisions relating to judgment on failure to file defence to ancillary claim

- 18.11 (1) This rule applies to an ancillary claim other than a counterclaim if the ancillary defendant fails to file a defence in respect of the ancillary claim within the permitted time.
(Rule 18.8(2) deals with the time for filing a defence to an ancillary claim.)
- (2) The ancillary defendant is deemed to admit the ancillary claim, and is bound by any judgment or decision in the main proceedings in so far as it is relevant to any matter arising in the ancillary claim; and
- (3) Subject to paragraph (4), if judgment under Part 12 is given against the ancillary claimant, he or she may apply to enter judgment against the ancillary defendant in respect of the ancillary claim.
- (4) The ancillary claimant may not enter judgment under paragraph (3) without the court's permission if the ancillary claimant -
- (a) has not satisfied the default judgment under Part 12; or
 - (b) wishes to obtain judgment for -
 - (i) any remedy other than a contribution or an indemnity; or
 - (ii) a sum exceeding that for which judgment has been entered against the ancillary claimant.
- (5) The court may at any time set aside or vary a judgment entered under paragraph (2) if it is satisfied that the ancillary defendant-
- (a) applied to set aside or vary the judgment as soon as reasonably practicable after finding out that judgment had been entered;
 - (b) gives a good explanation for the failure to file a defence; and
 - (c) has a real prospect of successfully defending the ancillary claim.

Procedural steps on service of ancillary claim form on person who is not party

- 18.12 An ancillary claimant who serves an ancillary claim form on a person who is not already a party must also serve a copy of -
- (a) every statement of case which has already been served in the proceedings; and
 - (b) such other documents as the court may direct.

Case management where there is defence to ancillary claim

- 18.13 (1) Where a defence is filed to an ancillary claim the court must consider the future conduct of the proceedings and give appropriate directions.
- (2) The court must fix a case management conference for all parties unless it is satisfied that such further directions as are required can be given in written form.
- (3) In giving directions under this rule the court must ensure that, so far as is practicable, the ancillary claim and the main claim are managed together.

- (a) any party;
 - (b) any person or body who wishes to be appointed as a representative party; or
 - (c) any person who is likely to be a party to proceedings.
- (3) An application for such an order -
- (a) must be supported by affidavit evidence; and
 - (b) must identify every person to be represented, either
 - (i) individually; or
 - (ii) by description, if it is not practicable to identify a person individually.
- (4) An application to appoint a representative defendant must be on notice to the claimant.
- (5) An application to appoint a representative claimant may be made without notice.
- (6) The court may direct that notice of an application be given to such other persons as it thinks fit.
- (7) Where the court directs that a person not already a party is to be a representative defendant, it must make an order adding that person as a defendant.

Consequence of order appointing representative party

- 21.3 (1) Where there is a representative claimant or defendant, a judgment or order of the court binds everyone whom that party represents.
- (2) It may not however be enforced against a person not a party to the proceedings unless the person wishing to enforce it obtains permission from the court.
- (3) An application for permission must be supported by evidence on affidavit and must be served on each person against whom it is wished to enforce the judgment.
- (4) On considering an application under this rule the court may -

- (a) take into account any facts or matters particular to any one or more of the persons against whom it is sought to enforce the judgment or order; and
- (b) determine any issue arising on the application either -
 - (i) summarily; or
 - (ii) by trial,

and, if the issue is to be determined by trial, give such directions as are appropriate to secure a just, economic and speedy decision upon the issue.

Representation of persons who cannot be ascertained, etc., in proceedings about estates, trusts and construction of written instruments

- 21.4
- (1) This rule applies only to proceedings about -
 - (a) the estate of someone who is dead;
 - (b) property subject to a trust; or
 - (c) the construction of a written instrument.
 - (2) The court may appoint one or more persons to represent any person or class of persons (including an unborn person or persons) who is or may be interested in or affected by the proceedings (whether presently or for any future, contingent or unascertained interest) where -
 - (a) the person, or the class or some member of it, cannot be ascertained or cannot readily be ascertained;
 - (b) the person, or the class or some member of it, though ascertained cannot be found; or
 - (c) it is expedient to do so for any other reason.
 - (3) An application for an order to appoint a representative party under this rule may be made by -
 - (a) any party; or
 - (b) any person who wishes to be appointed as a representative party.
 - (4) A representative appointed under this rule may be either a claimant or a defendant.
 - (5) A decision of the court binds everyone whom a representative claimant or representative defendant represents.

- (a) a compromise is proposed in proceedings to which rule 21.4 applies;
 - (b) some of the persons who are interested in, or who may be affected by, the compromise are not parties to the proceedings;

 - (d) the court is satisfied that the compromise will be for the benefit of the absent persons, the court may approve the compromise.
- (2) The persons for whose benefit the court may approve a compromise may be unborn or unascertained.
- (3) The court's order approving the compromise binds the absent persons unless it has been obtained by fraud or non-disclosure of material facts.

Representation of beneficiaries by trustees

- 21.6 (1) A claim may be made by or against a person in his, her or its capacity as a trustee, executor or administrator.
- (2) Where a claim is so made, there is no need for a beneficiary also to be a party.
- (3) The court may direct that notice of the proceedings be given to a beneficiary.
- (4) A decision of the court in such proceedings binds a beneficiary unless the court otherwise orders.
- (5) The only grounds for an order that a decision is not binding on a beneficiary is that the trustee, executor or administrator -
- (a) either -
 - (i) could not; or
 - (ii) did not in fact, represent the interest of the beneficiary; or
 - (b) has acted fraudulently.

Proceedings against estate of deceased person

- 21.7 (1) Where in any proceedings it appears that a deceased person was interested in the proceedings then, if the deceased person has no personal representatives, the court may make an order appointing someone to represent the deceased person's estate for the purpose of the proceedings.
- (2) A person may be appointed as a representative if that person -
- (a) can fairly and competently conduct proceedings on behalf of the estate of the deceased person; and
 - (b) has no interest adverse to that of the estate of the deceased person.
- (3) The court may make such an order on or without an application.
- (4) Until the court has appointed someone to represent the deceased person's estate, the claimant may take no step in the proceedings apart from applying for an order to have a representative appointed under this rule.
- (5) A decision in proceedings in which the court has appointed a representative under this rule binds the estate to the same extent as if the person appointed were an executor or administrator of the deceased person's estate.

Power of court to give directions to enable proceedings to be carried on after party's death

- 21.8 (1) Where a party to proceedings dies, the court may give directions to enable the proceedings to be carried on.

- 21.9 (1) Where a claimant dies and the claimant's personal representatives do not apply for an order under rule 19.3 to be substituted as claimants, the defendant may apply for the claim to be struck out.
- (2) Notice of the application must be given to the personal representatives of the claimant (if any) and such other persons as the court may direct.
- (3) The general rule is that if the court makes an order on an application under this rule it shall be that unless the personal representatives or some other person on behalf of the estate apply to be substituted under rule 19.3 or for directions under rule 21.8 by a specified date, the claim be struck out.

- (4) The court may give directions under rule 21.8 at the hearing of an application under this rule.

- (3) When the court makes an order or gives a direction, it may
 - (a) make it subject to conditions; and
 - (b) specify the consequence of failure to comply with the order or condition.
- (4) The conditions which the court may impose include -
 - (a) requiring a party to give security;
 - (b) requiring a party to give an undertaking;
 - (c) requiring the payment of money into court or as the court may direct;

(Parts 35 and 36 deal with offers to settle and payments into court.)
- (6) In considering whether to make an order, the court may take into account whether a party is prepared to give an undertaking.
- (7) A power of the court under these Rules to make an order includes a power to vary or revoke that order.
- (8) In special circumstances on the application of a party the court may dispense with compliance with any of these Rules.

Court's power to make orders of its own initiative

- 26.2
- (1) Except where a rule or other enactment provides otherwise, the court may exercise its powers on an application or of its own initiative.
 - (2) Where the court proposes to make an order of its own initiative it must give any party likely to be affected a reasonable opportunity to make representations.
 - (3) Such opportunity may be to make representations orally, in writing, telephonically or by such other means as the court considers reasonable.
 - (4) Where the court proposes -

- (a) to make an order of its own initiative; and
 - (b) to hold a hearing to decide whether to do so,
- the registry must give each party likely to be affected by the order at least 7 days notice of the date, time and place of the hearing.

Sanctions - striking out statement of case

- 26.3 (1) In addition to any other powers under these Rules, the court may strike out a statement of case or part of a statement of case if it appears to the court -
- (a) that there has been a failure to comply with a rule or practice direction or with an order or direction given by the court in the proceedings;
 - (b) that the statement of case or the part to be struck out is an abuse of the process of the court or is likely to obstruct the just disposal of the proceedings;
 - (c) that the statement of case or the part to be struck out discloses no reasonable grounds for bringing or defending a claim; or
 - (d) that the statement of case or the part to be struck out is prolix or does not comply with the requirements of Parts 8 or 10.
- (2) Where -
- (a) the court has struck out a claimant's statement of case;
 - (b) the claimant is ordered to pay costs to the defendant; and
 - (c) before those costs are paid, the claimant starts a similar claim against the same defendant based on substantially the same facts, the court may on the application of the defendant stay the subsequent claim until the costs of the first claim have been paid.

Court's general power to strike out statement of case

- 26.4 (1) Where a party has failed to comply with any of these Rules or any court order in respect of which no sanction for non-compliance has been imposed, any other party may apply to the court for an "unless order".
- (2) Such an application may be made without notice but must be accompanied by -
- (a) evidence on affidavit which -

- (i) identifies the rule or order which has not been complied with;
 - (ii) states the nature of the breach; and
 - (iii) certifies that the other party is in default; and
- (b) a draft order.
- (3) The registry must refer any such application immediately to a judge, master or registrar who may -
 - (a) grant the application;
 - (b) seek the views of the other party; or
 - (c) direct that an appointment be fixed to consider the application.
- (4) Where an appointment is fixed under paragraph (3) (c) the court must give 7 days notice of the date, time and place of such appointment to all parties
- (5) An “unless order” must identify the breach and require the party in default to remedy the default by a specified date.
- (6) The general rule is that the respondent should be ordered to pay the costs of such an application.
- (7) Where the defaulting party fails to comply with the terms of any “unless order” made by the court that party’s statement of case shall be struck out.
- (8) Rules 26.9 (general power to rectify) shall not apply.
 (Rule 11.16 deals with applications to set aside any order made on an application made without notice.)

Judgment without trial after striking out

- 26.5
- (1) This rule applies where the court makes an order which includes a term that the statement of case of a party be struck out if the party does not comply with the “unless order” by the specified date.
 - (2) Where the party against whom the order was made does not comply with the order, any other party may ask for judgment to be entered and for costs.
 - (3) A party may obtain judgment under this rule by filing a request for judgment.
 - (4) The request must -
 - (i) prove service of the “unless order”;
 - (ii) certify that the right to enter judgment has arisen because the court’s order was not complied with; and

- (iii) state the facts which entitle the party to judgment.
- (5) Where the party applying for judgment is the claimant and the claim is for -
 - (a) a specified sum of money;
 - (b) an amount of money to be decided by the court;
 - (c) delivery of goods where the claim form gives the defendant the alternative of paying their value; or
 - (d) any combination of these remedies, judgment shall be in accordance with the terms of the particulars of claim together with any interest and costs after giving credit for any payment that may have been made.
- (6) Where the party applying for judgment is the claimant and the claim is for some other remedy the judgment shall be such as the court considers that the claimant is entitled to.
- (7) Where a defendant seeks to obtain judgment on the claim, judgment shall be for costs to be taxed.
- (8) Where a decision of the court is necessary in order to decide the terms of the judgment the party making the request must apply for directions.

(Part 65 deals with the quantification of costs.)

Setting aside judgment entered after striking out

- 26.6 (1) A party against whom the court has entered judgment under rule 26.5 when the right to enter judgment had not arisen may apply to the court to set it aside.
- (2) An application under paragraph (1) must be made not more than 14 days after the judgment has been served on the party making the application.
- (3) Where the right to enter judgment had not arisen at the time when judgment was entered, the court must set aside judgment.
- (4) Where the application to set aside is made for any other reason, rule 26.8 (relief from sanctions) applies.

Sanctions have effect unless defaulting party obtains relief

- 26.7 (1) Where the court makes an order or gives directions the court must whenever practicable also specify the consequences of failure to comply.
- (2) Where a party has failed to comply with any of these Rules, a direction or any order, any sanction for non-compliance imposed by the rule, direction or the order has effect unless the party in default applies for and obtains relief from the sanction, and rule 26.9 shall not apply.

- (3) Where a rule, practice direction or order -
 - (a) requires a party to do something by a specified date; and
 - (b) specifies the consequences of failure to comply, the time for doing the act in question may not be extended by agreement between the parties.

Relief from sanctions

- 26.8 (1) An application for relief from any sanction imposed for a failure to comply with any rule, order or direction must be -
 - (a) made promptly; and
 - (b) supported by evidence on affidavit.
- (2) The court may grant relief only if it is satisfied that -
 - (a) the failure to comply was not intentional;
 - (b) there is a good explanation for the failure; and
 - (c) the party in default has generally complied with all other relevant rules, practice directions orders and directions.
- (3) In considering whether to grant relief, the court must have regard to -
 - (a) the interests of the administration of justice;
 - (b) whether the failure to comply was due to the party or that party's attorney-at-law;
 - (c) whether the failure to comply has been or can be remedied within a reasonable time;
 - (d) whether the trial date or any likely trial date can still be met if relief is granted; and
 - (e) the effect which the granting of relief or not would have on each party.
- (4) The court may not order the respondent to pay the applicant's costs in relation to any application for relief unless exceptional circumstances are shown.

General power of the court to rectify matters where there has been a procedural error

- 26.9 (1) This rule applies only where the consequence of failure to comply with a rule, practice direction or court order has not been specified by any rule, practice direction or court order.

- (2) An error of procedure or failure to comply with a rule, practice direction or court order does not invalidate any step taken in the proceedings, unless the court so orders.
- (3) Where there has been an error of procedure or failure to comply with a rule, practice direction, court order or direction, the court may make an order to put matters right.
- (4) The court may make such an order on or without an application by a party.

Scope of this Part

- 27.1 This Part deals with the procedures by which the court will manage cases.

Fixed date claims - first hearing

- 27.2 (1) When a fixed date claim is issued the registry must fix a date, time and place for the first hearing of the claim.
- (2) That date shall be not less than four weeks nor more than eight weeks from the date on which the fixed date claim form is issued unless the court otherwise directs

- (3) The general rule is that the claimant must serve the fixed date claim form not less than 14 days before the first hearing.
- (4) However the general rule is subject to any rule or statutory provision which specifies a different period.
- (5) The court may on or without an application direct that shorter notice be given -
 - (a) if the parties agree; or
 - (b) in urgent cases.
- (6) Where the defendant does not file an acknowledgment of service the claimant must file evidence on affidavit of service of the claim form and the relevant documents specified in rule 5.2(3) at least 7 days before the first hearing.
- (7) At the first hearing, in addition to any other powers that the court may have, the court shall have all the powers of a case management conference.
- (8) The court may, however, treat the first hearing as the trial of the claim if it is not defended or the court considers that the claim can be dealt with summarily.

Case management conference

- 27.3
- (1) The general rule is that the registry must fix a case management conference immediately upon the filing of a defence to a claim other than a fixed date claim.
 - (2) Where the defendant files a defence and also an admission of a specified sum of money, the case management conference is not to be fixed until the claimant gives notice under rule 14.7(3) that the claim is to continue.
 - (3) The case management conference must take place not less than 4 weeks nor more than 8 weeks after the defence is filed (or notice is given under rule 14.7(3)) unless any rule or practice direction prescribes a shorter or longer period or the case is urgent.
 - (4) However a party may apply to the court to fix a case management conference before a defence is filed.
 - (5) The application may be without notice but must state the reasons for the application.
 - (6) The registry must give all parties not less than 14 days notice of the date, time and place of the case management conference.
 - (7) However the court may with or without an application direct that shorter notice be given -

- (a) if the parties agree; or
 - (b) in urgent cases.
- (8) The general rule is that costs incurred in attending a case management conference are costs in the claim .
- (9) However the court may make some other order where the case management conference has to be adjourned due to the failure of one or more parties to -
 - (a) attend the hearing; or
 - (b) co-operate fully in achieving the objective of the case management conference.

Dispensing with case management conference

- 27.4
- (1) On the application of a party the court may dispense with a case management conference if it is satisfied that -
 - (a) the case may be dealt with justly without a case management conference; and
 - (b) the cost of the case management conference to the parties is disproportionate to the value of the proceedings and the benefits that might be achieved by a case management conference; or,
 - (c) in any case, the case should be dealt with as a matter of urgency.
 - (2) Where the court dispenses with a case management conference, it must immediately -
 - (a) give directions in writing about the preparation of the case; and
 - (b) set a timetable for the steps to be taken between the giving of directions and the trial; and
 - (c) fix a date for a pre-trial review unless it is satisfied that the case may be dealt with justly without a pre-trial review; and
 - (d) in any event, fix
 - (i) the trial date, or
 - (ii) the period within which the trial is to take place; and, in either case,
 - (iii) the date by which a listing questionnaire is to be filed by the parties at the registry.
 - (3) The registry must serve the directions made under paragraph (2) on all parties and give notice of -

- (a) the trial date or trial period; and
- (b) the date on which the listing questionnaire is to be filed by the parties.

Transfer from Resident Magistrate's Court

27.5 On receipt of a claim transferred from a Resident Magistrate's Court under the Resident Magistrates Act, section 130, the registry must forthwith fix a case management conference and give notice of the date, time and place for such conference to all parties to the claim.

Small money claims

27.6 Where -

- (a) the parties consent;
- (b) the court is satisfied that it can deal with the claim justly in a summary manner;
- (c) the claim is for a specified sum of money, interest and costs only; and
- (d) that sum of money does not exceed $2,000,000, the court may without a hearing -
 - (i) dispense with a case management conference and pre-trial review;
 - (ii) fix the trial date and dispense with a listing questionnaire under rule 27.12;
 - (iii) dispense with all or any of the requirements relating to the preparation and filing of bundles of documents under rule 39.1; and
 - (iv) give any directions that will assist in the speedy and just trial of the claim including any direction that might be given under this Part or Part 38 (pre-trial review).

Who is to conduct case management conference

27.7 The judge or master who conducts the case management conference may not try the claim except -

- (a) administrative law proceedings under Part 56;

- (b) admiralty proceedings under Part 70;
- (c) claims tried in the Commercial Division under Part 71; or
- (d) where all parties consent.

Attendance at case management conference or pre-trial review

- 27.8 (1) Where a party is represented by an attorney-at-law, that attorney-at-law or another attorney-at-law who is fully authorised to negotiate on behalf of the client and competent to deal with the case must attend the case management conference and any pre-trial review.
- (18/9/2006) (2) The general rule is that the party or a person who is in a position to represent the interests of the party (other than the attorney-at-law) must attend the case management conference.
- (3) However the court may dispense with the attendance of a party or representative.
- (4) Where the case management conference or pre-trial review is not attended by the attorney-at-law and the party or a representative the court may adjourn the case management conference or pre-trial review to a fixed date and may exercise any of its powers under Part 26 (Case management - the court's powers) or Part 64 (Costs).
- (5) Provided that the court is satisfied that notice of the hearing has been served on the absent party or parties in accordance with these Rules, then
- (a) if the claimant does not attend, the court may strike out the claim; and
 - (b) if any defendant does not attend, the court may enter judgment against that defendant in default of such attendance.
- (6) The provisions of rule 39.6 (application to set aside judgment given in party's absence) apply to an order made under paragraph (5) as they do to failure to attend a trial.

Orders to be made at case management conference

- 27.9 (1) The general rule is that at a case management conference the court must consider whether to give directions for -

- (a) standard disclosure and inspection;
 - (b) service of witness statements; and
 - (c) service of experts' reports (if any),

by dates fixed by the court.
- (2) The court may also give directions for the preparation of -
 - (a) an agreed statement of facts;
 - (b) an agreed statement of issues;
 - (c) an agreed statement of the basic technical, scientific or medical matters in issue; and
 - (d) an agreed statement as to any relevant specialist area of law,

(18/9/2006) which statement does not bind the trial judge.
- (3) The court must direct whether the trial is to be before -
 - (a) judge alone;
 - (b) judge with a common jury; or
 - (c) judge with a special jury.
- (4) The court must fix a date for a pre-trial review unless it is satisfied that, having regard to the value, importance and complexity of the case, it may be dealt with justly without a pre-trial review.
- (5) The court must in any event, -
 - (a) fix -
 - (i) the trial date, or
 - (ii) the period within which the trial is to commence; and
 - (iii) the date by which a listing questionnaire is to be filed at the court by the parties; and
 - (b) direct which party must draft the order.
- (6) The claimant or such other party as the court may direct must serve the order containing the directions made on all other parties giving notice of -
 - (a) the trial date or trial period;
 - (b) the date of any pre trial review; and
 - (c) the date by which the listing questionnaire is to be filed by the parties.

Adjournment of case management conference

- 27.10 (1) The court may not adjourn a case management conference without fixing a new date, time and place for the adjourned case management conference.

- (2) Where the court is satisfied that -
 - (a) the parties are in the process of negotiating, or are likely to negotiate, a settlement; or
 - (b) the parties are attending, or have arranged to attend, a form of ADR procedure, the court may adjourn the case management conference to a suitable date, time and place to enable negotiations or the ADR procedure to continue.
- (3) Where the case management conference is adjourned under paragraph (2) each party must notify the registry promptly if the claim is settled.
- (4) The court may give directions as to the preparation of the case for trial if the case management conference is adjourned.
- (5) So far as practicable, any adjourned case management conference and procedural applications made prior to a pre-trial review must be heard and determined by the judge, master or registrar who conducted the first case management conference.

Variation of case management timetable

- 27.11
- (1) A party must apply to the court if that party wishes to vary a date which the court has fixed for -
 - (a) a case management conference;
 - (b) a party to do something where the order specifies the consequences of failure to comply;
 - (c) a pre-trial review;
 - (d) the return of a listing questionnaire; or
 - (e) the trial date or trial period.
 - (2) No date set by the court or these Rules for doing any act may be varied by the parties if the variation would make it necessary to vary any of the dates mentioned in paragraph (1).
 - (3) A party seeking to vary any other date in the timetable without the agreement of the other parties must apply to the court, and the general rule is that the party must do so before that date.
(Rule 42.7 deals with consent orders.)
 - (4) A party who applies after that date must apply -
 - (a) for relief from any sanction to which the party has become subject under these Rules or any court order; and
 - (b) for an extension of time.
(Rule 26.8 provides for applications for relief from sanctions.)
 - (5) The parties may agree to vary a date in the timetable other than

- one mentioned in paragraphs (1) or (2).
- (6) Where the parties so agree, they must -
 - (a) file a consent application for an order to that effect; and
 - (b) certify on that application that the variation agreed will not affect the date fixed for the trial or, if no date has been fixed, the period in which the trial is to commence, and the timetable is accordingly varied unless the court directs otherwise.

Listing Questionnaire

- 27.12
- (1) Each party must file the completed listing questionnaire in form 11 at the registry by the date directed under rule 27.9(5)
 - (2) Where -
 - (a) a party
 - (i) fails to file the completed questionnaire at the registry by the date fixed under rule 27.9(5)(c); or
 - (ii) fails to give all the information requested by the listing questionnaire; or
 - (b) the court considers that a hearing is necessary to enable it to decide what directions to give in order to complete the preparation of the case, the registry may fix a listing appointment and direct any or all of the parties to attend the appointment.
 - (3) The registry must give all parties at least 7 days notice of the date, time and place of the listing appointment.
 - (4) Any party at fault must attend the listing appointment.
 - (5) At the appointment the court must -
 - (a) give any directions which may be needed to complete the preparation of the case for trial without any adjournment of the trial; and
 - (b) where the listing appointment has been fixed under paragraph (2)(a), order the party at fault to pay the costs of the hearing unless there is a special reason why it should not make such an order.
 - (6) Apart from the requirement to complete a listing questionnaire the court may at any time require the parties to answer a questionnaire to assist it in the management of the case.

Fixing trial date

- 27.13 (1) As soon as practicable after -
- (a) each party has returned a completed listing questionnaire to the registry, or
 - (b) the court has held a listing appointment under rule 27.12(3), the registry must fix the date of the trial (or, if it has already done so, confirm that date) and notify the parties.
- (2) The general rule is that the registry must give the parties at least 8 weeks notice of the date of the trial.
- (3) The court may however give shorter notice -
- (a) if the parties agree; or
 - (b) in urgent cases.

Scope of this Part

- 28.1 (1) This Part contains rules about the disclosure and inspection of documents.
- (2) In this Part "document" means anything on or in which information of any description is recorded; and "copy" in relation to a document, means anything onto which information recorded in the document has been copied, by whatever means and whether directly or indirectly.
- (3) A party "discloses" a document by revealing that the document exists or has existed.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part a document is "directly relevant" only if -
- (a) the party with control of the document intends to rely on it;
 - (b) it tends to adversely affect that party's case; or
 - (c) it tends to support another party's case.

Duty of disclosure limited to documents which are or have been in party's control

- 28.2 (1) A party's duty to disclose documents is limited to documents which are or have been in the control of that party.
- (2) For this purpose a party has or has had control of a document if -
- (a) it is or was in the physical possession of that party;
 - (b) that party has or has had a right to possession of it; or
 - (c) that party has or has had a right to inspect or take copies of it.

Disclosure of copies

- 28.3 (1) Except where required by paragraph (2), a party need not disclose more than one copy of a document.
- (2) A party must however disclose a copy if it contains a modification, obliteration or other marking or feature which is not present in the original or any copy of the document which is being disclosed.

Standard disclosure - what documents are to be disclosed

- 28.4 (1) Where a party is required by any direction of the court to give standard disclosure that party must disclose all documents which are directly relevant to the matters in question in the proceedings.

- (2) The court may dispense with or limit standard disclosure.
- (3) The parties may agree in writing to dispense with or limit standard disclosure.

Duty of search

- 28.5
- (1) When giving standard disclosure, a party is required to make a reasonable search for documents falling within rule 28.4.
 - (2) The factors relevant in deciding the reasonableness of a search include the following -
 - (a) the number of documents involved;
 - (b) the nature and complexity of the proceedings;
 - (c) the ease and expense of retrieval of any particular document; and
 - (d) the significance of any document which is likely to be located during the search.
 - (3) Where a party has not searched for a category or class of document on the grounds that it would be unreasonable to do so, this must be stated in that party's list of documents which must identify the category or class of document.

Specific disclosure

- 28.6
- (1) An order for specific disclosure is an order that a party must do one or more of the following things -
 - (a) disclose documents or classes of documents specified in the order; or
 - (b) carry out a search for documents to the extent stated in the order and disclose any documents located as a result of that search.
 - (2) An order for specific disclosure may be made on or without an application.
 - (3) An application for specific disclosure may be made without notice at a case management conference.
 - (4) An application for specific disclosure may identify documents -
 - (a) by describing the class to which they belong; or
 - (b) in any other manner.
 - (5) An order for specific disclosure may require disclosure only of documents which are directly relevant to one or more matters in issue in the proceedings.

Criteria for ordering specific disclosure

- 28.7 (1) When deciding whether to make an order for specific disclosure, the court must consider whether specific disclosure is necessary in order to dispose fairly of the claim or to save costs.
- (2) It must have regard to-
- (a) the likely benefits of specific disclosure;
 - (b) the likely cost of specific disclosure; and
 - (c) whether it is satisfied that the financial resources of the party against whom the order would be made are likely to be sufficient to enable that party to comply with any such order.
- (3) Where, having regard to paragraph (2)(c), the court would otherwise refuse to make an order for specific disclosure, it may however make such an order on terms that the party seeking that order must pay the other party's costs of such disclosure in any event.

Procedure for disclosure

- 28.8 (1) Paragraphs (2) to (5) set out the procedure for disclosure.
- (2) Each party must make, and serve on every other party, a list of documents in form 12.
- (3) The list must identify the documents or categories of documents in a convenient order and manner and as concisely as possible.
- (4) The list must state -
- (a) what documents are no longer in the party's control;
 - (b) what has happened to those documents; and
 - (c) where each such document then is to the best of the party's knowledge, information or belief.
- (5) It must include documents already disclosed.
- (6) A list of documents served by a company, firm, association or other organisation must -
- (a) state the name and position of the person responsible for identifying individuals who might be aware of any document which should be disclosed; and
 - (b) identify those individuals who have been asked whether they are aware of any such documents and state the position of those individuals.

Duty of attorney-at-law

- 28.9 The attorney-at-law for a party must -
- (a) explain to the maker of the list of documents -
 - (i) the necessity of making full disclosure in accordance with the terms of the order for disclosure and these Rules; and
 - (ii) the possible consequences of failing to do so; and
 - (b) certify on the list of documents under rule 28.8(2) that the explanation required by paragraph (1) has been given.

Maker of list to certify understanding of duty of disclosure

- 28.10 (1) The maker of the list must certify in the list of documents - (a) that he or she understands the duty of disclosure; and (b) that to the best of the maker's knowledge the duty has been carried out.
- (2) In the case of a list served on behalf of a company, firm, association or other organisation the certificate referred to in paragraph (1) must be made by the person identified in rule 28.8(6)(a)
- (3) Where it is impracticable for the maker of the list to sign the certificate required by paragraph (1) it may be given by that party's attorney-at-law.
- (4) A certificate given by the attorney-at-law must also certify -
- (a) the reasons why it is impractical for the maker of the list to give the certificate; and
 - (b) that the certificate is given on the instructions of the maker of the list.

Disclosure in stages

- 28.11 The parties may agree in writing or the court may direct that disclosure or inspection or both may take place in stages.

Inspection and copying of listed documents

- 28.12 (1) When a party has served a list of documents on any other party, that party has a right to inspect any document on the list, except documents -

- (a) which are no longer in the physical possession of the party who served the list; or
 - (b) for which a right to withhold from disclosure is claimed.
- (2) The party wishing to inspect the documents must give the party who served the list written notice of the wish to inspect documents in the list.
- (3) The party who is to give inspection must permit inspection not more than 7 days after the date on which the notice is received.
- (4) Where the party giving the notice undertakes to pay the reasonable cost of copying, the party who served the list must supply the other with a copy of each document requested not more than 7 days after the date on which the notice was received.

Duty of disclosure continuous during proceedings

- 28.13
- (1) The duty of disclosure in accordance with any order for standard or specific disclosure continues until the proceedings are concluded.
 - (2) Where documents to which that duty extends come to a party's notice at any time during the proceedings, that party must immediately notify every other party and serve a supplemental list of those documents.
 - (3) The supplemental list must be served not more than 14 days after the documents to which that duty extends have come to the notice of the party required to serve it.

Consequence of failure to disclose documents under order for disclosure

- 28.14
- (1) A party who fails to give disclosure by the date ordered or to permit inspection may not rely on or produce any document not so disclosed or made available for inspection at the trial.
 - (2) A party seeking to enforce an order for disclosure may apply to the court for an order that the other party's statement of case or some part of it be struck out.
 - (3) An application under paragraph (2) relating to an order for specific disclosure may be made without notice but must be supported by evidence on affidavit that the other party has not complied with the order.
 - (4) The general rule is that the court will deal with such an application without attendance but the court may -

- (a) require the applicant to attend to support the application; or
 - (b) direct that a hearing be fixed and that notice of the date, time and place of such hearing be given to the respondent.
- (5) On an application under paragraph (2) the court may order that unless the party in default complies with the order for disclosure by a specific date that party's statement of case or some part of it be struck out.
- (Rule 11.16 deals with applications to set aside order made on application without notice; Rule 26.5 deals with judgment after striking out; Rule 26.8 deals with applications for relief.)

Claim of right to withhold disclosure or inspection of document

- 28.15 (1) A person who claims a right to withhold disclosure or inspection of a document, class of document or part of a document must -
- (a) make such claim for the document; and
 - (b) state the grounds on which such a right is claimed, in the list or otherwise in writing to the person wishing to inspect the document.
- (2) A person may however apply to the court, without notice, for an order permitting that person not to disclose the existence of a document on the ground that disclosure of the existence of the document would damage the public interest.
- (3) A person who applies under paragraph (2) must -
- (a) identify the document, documents or parts of documents for which a right to withhold disclosure is claimed; and
 - (b) give evidence on affidavit showing -
 - (i) that the applicant has a right or duty to withhold disclosure; and
 - (ii) the grounds on which such right or duty is claimed.
- (4) Unless the court orders otherwise, an order of the court under paragraph (2) is not to be -
- (a) served on; nor
 - (b) open for inspection by, any person.
- (5) A person who does not agree with a claim of right to withhold inspection or disclosure of a document may apply to the court for an order that such document be disclosed or made available for inspection.
- (6) On hearing such an application the court must make an order that the document be disclosed unless it is satisfied that there is a right to withhold disclosure.

- (7) Where a person -
 - (a) claims a right to withhold inspection; or
 - (b) applies for an order permitting that person not to disclose the existence of, a document or part of a document, the court may require the person to produce that document to the court to enable it to decide whether the claim is justified.
- (8) On considering any application under this rule, the court may invite any person to make representations on the question of whether the document ought to be withheld.

Restrictions on use of a privileged document inspection of which has been inadvertently allowed

- 28.16 Where a party inadvertently allows a privileged document to be inspected, the party who has inspected it may use it or its contents only with -
- (a) the permission of the court; or
 - (b) the agreement of the party disclosing the document.

Documents referred to in statements of case, etc

- 28.17
- (1) A party may inspect and copy a document mentioned in -
 - (a) the claim form;
 - (b) a statement of case;
 - (c) a witness statement or summary;
 - (d) an affidavit; or
 - (e) an expert's report.
 - (2) A party who wishes to inspect and copy such a document must give written notice to the party who, or whose witness, mentioned the document.
 - (3) The party to whom the notice is given must comply with the notice not more than 7 days after the date on which the notice is served.
 - (4) Where the party who wishes to inspect the document undertakes to pay the reasonable cost of copying, the party who, or whose witness, mentioned the document must supply the other with a copy of each documents requested not more than 7 days after the date on which the undertaking was received.

Subsequent use of disclosed documents

- 28.18 (1) A party to whom a document has been disclosed may use the document only for the purpose of the proceedings in which it is disclosed except where-
- (a) the document has been read to or by the court, or referred to, in open court; or
 - (b) (i) the party disclosing the document and the person to whom the document belongs; or
 - (ii) the court,
- gives permission.
- (2) The court may make an order restricting or prohibiting the use of a document which has been disclosed, even where the document has been read to or by the court, or referred to in open court.
- (3) An application for such an order may be made -
- (a) by a party; or
 - (b) by any person to whom the document belongs.

Notice to prove document

- 28.19 (1) A party shall be deemed to admit the authenticity of any document disclosed to that party under this part unless that party serves notice that the document must be proved at trial.
- (2) A notice to prove a document must be served not less than 42 days before the trial.

Notice to admit or produce documents

- 28.20 (1) A party ("the first party") may serve notice on another party ("the second party") requiring the second party to admit the authenticity of any document specified in the notice.
- (2) A notice under paragraph (1) must be served not less than 42 days before the trial.
- (3) The second party may give notice to the first party within 21 days of service of the notice under paragraph (1) that the authenticity of the document is not admitted.
- (4) Unless the second party gives notice under paragraph (3) that party shall be deemed to have admitted the authenticity of the documents specified in the notice under paragraph (1) unless the court otherwise orders.

- (5) A party may serve on another party a notice requiring that party to produce at the trial any documents specified in the notice.
- (6) A notice under paragraph (5) must be served not less than 42 days before the trial.

 - (b) any permission granted shall be in relation to that expert witness only.
- (4) No oral or written expert witness's evidence may be called or put in unless the party wishing to call or put in that evidence has served a report of the evidence which the expert witness intends to give.

Scope of this Part

- 35.1 (1) This Part contains rules about -
- (a) offers to settle proceedings which a party may make to another party; and
 - (b) the consequences of such offers.
- (2) This Part does not limit a party's right to make an offer to settle otherwise than in accordance with this Part.

- (3) The rules in this Part are subject to rule 23.12 (compromise etc., by or on behalf of a minor or patient).
(Part 14 contains procedures enabling a defendant to admit all or part of a claim. Part 36 deals with payments into court.)

Introductory

- 35.2 (1) An offer to settle may be made in any proceedings whether or not there is a claim for money.
- (2) The party who makes the offer is called the "offeror".
- (3) The party to whom the offer is made is called the "offeree".
- (4) An offer to settle is made when it is served on the offeree.

Making offer to settle

- 35.3 (1) A party may make an offer to another party which is expressed to be "without prejudice" but in which the offeror reserves the right to make the terms of the offer known to the court after judgment is given with regard to -
- (a) the allocation of the costs of the proceedings; and
- (b) (in the case of an offer by the claimant) the question of interest on damages.
- (2) The offer may relate to the whole of the proceedings or to part of them or to any issue that arises in them.

Time when offer to settle may be made

- 35.4 A party may make an offer to settle under this Part at any time before the beginning of the trial.

Procedure for making offer to settle

- 35.5 (1) An offer to settle must be in writing.
- (2) The offeror must serve the offer on the offeree and a copy on all other parties.
- (3) Neither -
- (a) the fact; nor
- (b) the amount,
- (17/2/2003) of the offer or any payment into court in support of the offer is to be communicated to the court before all questions of liability and the amount of money to be awarded (other than costs and interest) have been decided.

- (4) Paragraph (3) does not apply -
 - (a) to an offer which has been accepted; or
 - (b) where a defence of tender before claim has been pleaded.

Extent to which offer to settle covers interest, costs or counterclaim

- 35.6 (1) An offer to settle a claim for damages must state whether or not the amount offered includes -
 - (a) interest; or
 - (b) costs.
- (2) Where the offer includes interest or costs, it must state the amount which is included for each.
- (3) Where there is a counterclaim as well as a claim, the offer must state -
 - (a) in the case of an offer by the claimant, whether or not it takes into account the counterclaim; or
 - (b) in the case of an offer by the defendant, whether or not it takes into account the claim, and in each case in what amount.

Offer to settle made after interim payment

- 35.7 Where an interim payment has been made, whether voluntarily or under an order under Part 17, any subsequent offer to settle must state whether it is in addition to the interim payment or whether it is intended to replace it.

Offer to settle part of a claim

- 35.8 (1) An offer to settle must state whether or not it covers the whole or part of the claim.
- (2) Where it does not state that it is to cover part only of the claim, it is to be taken to cover the whole claim.
- (3) Where the offer covers only part or parts of the claim it must -
 - (a) identify the part or parts of the claim in respect of which it is made; and

- (b) if more than one, state what is offered in respect of each part covered by the offer.

Time limit for accepting an offer to settle

- 35.9
- (1) The offeror may state in the offer that it is open for acceptance until a specified date.
 - (2) The offer shall have no effect on any decision that the court makes as to the consequences of the offer unless it is open for acceptance for at least 21 days.
 - (3) Acceptance of the offer after the beginning of the trial shall have no effect on any decision that the court makes as to the consequences of such acceptance.
 - (4) The court may permit an offeree to accept an offer after the specified date on such terms as the court considers just.

Procedure for acceptance

- 35.10
- (1) To accept an offer a party must -
 - (a) serve written notice of acceptance on the offeror; and
 - (b) send a copy of the notice to any other party.
 - (2) The offeree accepts the offer when notice of acceptance is served on the offeror.
 - (3) Where an offer or payment into court under Part 36 is made in proceedings to which rule 23.12 (compromise etc. by or on behalf of minor or patient) applies -
 - (a) the offer or payment may be accepted only with the permission of the court; and
 - (b) no payment out of any sum in court may be made without a court order.

Effect of acceptance - generally

- 35.11
- (1) Where the offeree accepts an offer which is not limited in accordance with rule 35.8(3), the claim is stayed upon the terms of the offer.
 - (2) Where the offer covers a claim and a counterclaim, both the claim and the counterclaim are stayed on the terms of the offer.
 - (3) In any other case the proceedings are stayed to the extent that they are covered by the terms of the offer.

- (4) Where the court's approval is required for the settlement of the proceedings, any stay arising on the acceptance of the offer has effect only when the court gives its approval.
(Rule 23.12 deals with the settlement of proceedings involving minors and patients.)
- (5) A stay arising on the acceptance of an offer does not affect proceedings to deal with any question of costs relating to the proceedings which have been stayed and which have not been dealt with by the offer.
- (6) Where money has been paid into court in support of an offer, a stay arising out of the acceptance of the offer does not affect any proceedings to obtain payment out of court.
(Part 36 deals with payments into court.)
- (7) Where an offer is accepted but its terms are not complied with, any stay arising on acceptance ceases to have effect and -
 - (a) the proceedings or the part which was stayed may continue; and
 - (b) either party may apply to the court to enforce those terms.
- (8) Where a party claims damages for breach of contract arising from an alleged failure of another party to carry out the terms of an agreed offer, that party may do so by applying to the court without the need to commence new proceedings unless the court orders otherwise.

Effect of acceptance where there are more than two parties

- 35.12
- (1) Where there is more than one defendant whom the claimant says are jointly and severally, or severally, liable and -
 - (a) the claimant agrees to settle the claim as against one or more, but not all of them; and
 - (b) the claimant discontinues the claim against any other defendant, the claimant is liable to pay the costs of that defendant unless the court otherwise orders.
(Part 37 deals with discontinuance.)
 - (2) Where a claimant accepts an offer made by one of a number of joint defendants -
 - (a) paragraph (1) shall not apply; and
 - (b) the defendant who made the offer is liable for the costs of the other joint defendants.
 - (3) Where -
 - (a) there is more than one claimant; and

- (b) one or more, but not all, of them agree to settle, the others may continue the proceedings.

Costs of offeror and offeree where offer is accepted - defendant's offer

- 35.13 (1) Where -
- (a) the defendant makes an offer to settle; and
 - (b) the claimant accepts the offer within any period stated for accepting it and before the beginning of the trial, the claimant is entitled to his costs to the day when he accepts the offer.
- (2) Where the court or the defendant permits a claimant to accept an offer after the time stated for accepting it the general rule is that-
- (a) the claimant is entitled to costs to the end of the period stated for accepting the offer; and
 - (b) the defendant is entitled to any costs incurred between the end of the period stated for accepting the offer and the date when the offeree accepts the offer, unless the court orders otherwise.
- (3) Where the settlement relates only to part of the proceedings and the remaining part or parts of the proceedings continue -
- (a) the claimant is entitled under this rule only to the costs relating to that part of the proceedings which has been settled; and
 - (b) unless the court orders otherwise or the defendant agrees, the claimant may not recover any such costs, nor have them quantified, until the conclusion of the rest of the proceedings when the court can deal with the costs of the whole of the proceedings including any costs relating to those parts of the proceedings that were not settled.

Costs of offeror and offeree where offer is accepted - claimant's offer

- 35.14 Where the claimant makes an offer which is accepted by the defendant, the claimant is entitled to costs up to the time when notice of acceptance of the offer is served.

Position where offer not accepted - general rules

- 35.15 (1) The general rule for defendant's offers is that, where the defendant makes an offer to settle which is not accepted and -
- (a) in the case of an offer to settle a claim for damages, the court awards less than 85% of the amount of the defendant's offer; or
 - (b) in any other case, the court considers that the claimant acted unreasonably in not accepting the defendant's offer, the claimant must pay any costs incurred by the defendant after the latest date on which the offer could have been accepted without the court's permission.
- (2) Where a claimant makes an offer to settle and -
- (a) in the case of an offer to settle a claim for damages, the court awards an amount which is equal to or more than the amount of the offer; or
 - (b) in any other case, the court considers that the defendant acted unreasonably in not accepting the claimant's offer, the court may, in exercising its discretion as to interest, allow interest on the damages at a rate of 20% per annum.
- (3) The court may decide that the general rule under paragraph (1) is not to apply in a particular case.
- (4) In deciding whether the general rule should not apply and in considering the exercise of its discretion under paragraph (2), the court may take into account -
- (a) the terms of any offer;
 - (b) the stage in the proceedings at which the offer was made;
 - (c) the information available to the offeror and the offeree at the time that the offeror made the offer; and
 - (d) the conduct of the offeror and the offeree with regard to giving or refusing information for the purposes of enabling the offer to be made or evaluated.
- (5) This rule applies to offers to settle at any time, including before proceedings were started.

 - (2) Money paid into court under a court order may not be paid out unless the court gives permission.
 - (3) Paragraph (2) does not apply where -
 - (a) the money is paid into court by a defendant;
 - (b) in accordance with rule 36.6(2), that defendant chooses to treat the money paid into court as if it were payment into court in support of an offer to settle; and
 - (c) the claimant accepts the offer to settle.

Money paid into court as condition for permission to defend or to continue to defend

- 36.6 (1) This rule applies where the court makes an order permitting a defendant -
- (a) to defend; or
 - (b) to continue to defend,
- on condition that he makes a payment into court.
- (2) Where -
- (a) a defendant makes such a payment into court; and
 - (b) makes an offer to settle (whether before or after the order to pay money into court),
- the defendant may choose to treat the whole or any part of the money paid into court as if it were a payment into court made in support of the offer to settle.
- (3) To do this the defendant must -
- (a) file a notice that the defendant so chooses; and
 - (b) at the same time, serve a copy of it on every other party to the proceedings.

Proceedings under the Fatal Accidents Acts

- 36.7 (1) Where -
- (a) a single sum of money is paid into court in satisfaction of proceedings arising under the Fatal Accidents Act; and
 - (b) that sum is accepted, the court must apportion that sum between the different causes of action either when -
 - (i) giving directions under rule 23.13; or
 - (ii) when authorising its payment out of court.
- (2) Where in such proceedings -
- (a) a claim is made by more than one person; and
 - (b) a single sum of money is paid into or apportioned by the court to the cause of action under the Act and is accepted by such persons,
- the court must apportion the payment between those persons.

Discontinuance

Contents of this Part

Scope of this Part	Rule 37.1
Right to discontinue claim	Rule 37.2
Procedure for discontinuing	Rule 37.3
Right to apply to have notice of discontinuance set aside	Rule 37.4
Effect of discontinuance	Rule 37.5
Liability for costs	Rule 37.6
Discontinuance and subsequent proceedings	Rule 37.7
Stay of remainder of partly discontinued proceedings where costs not paid	Rule 37.8

Scope of this Part

- 37.1 (1) The rules in this Part set out the procedure by which a claimant may discontinue all or any part of a claim.
- (2) A claimant who -
- (a) claims more than one remedy; and
 - (b) subsequently abandons a claim to one or more remedies but continues with the claim for the other remedies,
- is not treated as discontinuing part of a claim for the purposes of this Part.
- (Rule 42.7 deals with consent orders which may include orders bringing a claim to an end by way of a consent judgment or otherwise.)

Right to discontinue claim

- 37.2 (1) The general rule is that a claimant may discontinue all or part of a claim without the permission of the court.
- (2) However -
- (a) a claimant needs permission from the court if he wishes to

- discontinue all or part of a claim in relation to which -
 - (i) the court has granted an interim injunction; or
 - (ii) any party has given an undertaking to the court;
- (b) a claimant who has received an interim payment in relation to a claim (whether voluntarily or pursuant to an order under Part 17) may discontinue only if -
 - (i) the defendant who made the payment consents in writing; or
 - (ii) the court gives permission; and
- (c) where there is more than one claimant, a claimant may not discontinue unless -
 - (i) every other claimant consents in writing; or
 - (ii) the court gives permission.
- (3) Where there is more than one defendant, the claimant may discontinue all or part of the claim against all or any of the defendants.

Procedure for discontinuing

- 37.3
- (1) To discontinue a claim or any part of a claim a claimant must -
 - (a) serve a notice of discontinuance on every other party to the claim;
 - and
 - (b) file a copy of it.
 - (2) The claimant must certify on the filed copy that notice of discontinuance has been served on every other party to the claim.
 - (3) Where the claimant needs the consent of some other party, a copy of the necessary consent must be attached to the filed copy of the notice of discontinuance.
 - (4) Where the claimant needs permission from the court, the notice of discontinuance must contain details of the order by which the court gave permission.
 - (5) Where there is more than one defendant, the notice of discontinuance must specify against which defendant or defendants the claim is discontinued.
 - (6) A notice of discontinuance which does not specify against which defendants it is intended to discontinue is deemed to discontinue the claim or that part of the claim specified in the notice against all defendants.

Right to apply to have notice of discontinuance set aside

- 37.4 (1) Where the claimant discontinues without the consent of the defendant or the permission of the court, any defendant who has not consented may apply to have the notice of discontinuance set aside.
- (2) The defendant may not apply under this rule more than 28 days after the date when the notice of discontinuance was served on that defendant.

Effect of discontinuance

- 37.5 (1) Discontinuance against any defendant takes effect on the date when the notice of discontinuance is served on that defendant under rule 37.3(1)(a).
- (2) The claim or the relevant part of the claim is brought to an end as against that defendant on that date.
- (3) However, this does not affect -
- (a) the right of the defendant under rule 37.4 to apply to have the notice of discontinuance set aside; or
 - (b) any proceedings relating to costs.

Liability for costs

- 37.6 (1) Unless -
- (a) the parties agree; or
 - (b) the court orders otherwise,
- a claimant who discontinues is liable for the costs of the defendant against whom the claim is discontinued incurred on or before the date on which notice of discontinuance was served.
- (2) Where a claim is only partly discontinued -
- (a) the claimant is only liable for the costs relating to that part of the claim which is discontinued; and
 - (b) unless the court orders otherwise, the costs which the claimant is liable to pay are not to be quantified until the conclusion of the rest of the claim.

Discontinuance and subsequent proceedings

37.7 Where -

- (a) a claimant discontinues a claim after the defendant against whom the claim is discontinued has filed a defence; and
 - (b) the claimant makes a subsequent claim -
 - (i) against the same defendant;
 - (ii) arising out of facts which are the same or substantially the same as those relating to the discontinued claim, and
 - (iii) the claimant has not paid the defendant's costs of the discontinued claim,
- the court may stay the subsequent claim until such time as the costs of the discontinued claim are paid

Stay of remainder of partly discontinued proceedings where costs not paid

37.8 (1) This rule applies where -

- (a) proceedings are partly discontinued;
 - (b) a claimant is liable to pay costs under rule 37.6; and
 - (c) the claimant fails to pay those costs within 21 days of -
 - (i) the date on which the parties agreed the sum payable by the claimant; or
 - (ii) the date on which the court taxed the costs.
- (2) Where this rule applies, the court may stay the remainder of the proceedings until the claimant pays the whole of the costs which he is liable to pay under rule 37.6.

Direction for pre-trial review

- 38.2 (1) At any case management conference and at any subsequent hearing in the proceedings other than the trial the court must consider whether a pre-trial review should be held to enable the court to deal justly with the proceedings.
- (2) A party may apply for a direction that a pre-trial review be held.
- (3) An application for a pre-trial review must be made not less than 60 days before the trial date or the beginning of any trial period fixed under rules 27.4(2)(d) or 27.7(5).
- (4) The registry must give each party not less than 14 days notice of the date, time and place for the pre-trial review.
- (5) The general rule is that the costs incurred in attending a pre-trial review are costs in the claim.
- (6) However the court may make some other order where the pre-trial review has to be adjourned due to the failure of one or more parties to-

- (a) attend the hearing; or
- (b) co-operate fully in achieving the objective of the pre-trial review.

Rules relating to case management conferences to apply

38.3 Parts 25 and 26, where appropriate, apply to a pre-trial review as they do to a case management conference.

Who is to conduct pre-trial review

38.4 The judge who conducts the pre-trial review may try the claim.

(1/1/2003)

Parties to prepare pre-trial memorandum

- 38.5
- (1) The parties must seek to agree and file at the registry a pre-trial memorandum not less than 7 days before the date fixed for the pre-trial review.
 - (2) Where the parties are not able to agree such a memorandum each party must file its own memorandum and serve a copy on all other parties not less than 3 days before the date fixed for the pre-trial review.
 - (3) A pre-trial memorandum must contain -
 - (a) a concise statement of the nature of the proceedings,
 - (b) details of any admissions made;
 - (c) the factual and legal contentions of the party or parties filing it; and
 - (d) a statement of the issues to be determined at the trial.
 - (4) The pre-trial memorandum must be accompanied by a copy of such documents that are intended to be used at trial which may be of assistance in settling the claim.

Scope of Pre-trial Review

- 38.6
- (a) At the pre-trial review the parties must be prepared to address -
 - (a) the possibility of settlement of any or all of the issues in the claim;
 - (b) the possibility of referring any unsettled issues to a form of alternative dispute resolution;

- (c) the simplification of the issues in the claim;
- (d) agreement of any expert evidence;
- (e) the appointment of a court expert to give evidence as to any contested matters of expertise;
- (f) the possibility of admissions which may shorten the trial;

- (h) the amount of damages, if claimed;
- (i) the estimated duration of trial;
- (j) the need for interpreters at the trial; and
- (k) any other matter that may promote the fair, expeditious and economic disposition of the claim.

Directions at pre-trial review

- 38.7 (1) At the pre-trial review the court must give directions as to the conduct of the trial in order to ensure the fair, expeditious and economic trial of the issues.
- (2) In particular the court may -
- (a) direct either party to provide further information to the other;
 - (b) give directions for the filing by each party and service on all other parties of one or more of -
 - (i) a skeleton argument;
 - (ii) a chronology of relevant events;
 - (iii) a summary of any legal propositions to be relied on at the trial; and
 - (iv) a list of authorities which it is proposed to cite in support of those propositions;
 - (c) direct the parties jointly to prepare one or more of -
 - (i) a core bundle of documents (that is, a bundle containing only such documents which the trial judge will need to pre-read or to which it will be necessary to refer repeatedly at the trial);
 - (ii) an agreed statement of facts;
 - (iii) an agreed statement of the basic technical, scientific or medical matters in issue; and
 - (iv) an agreed statement as to any relevant specialist area of law, which statement shall not be binding on the trial judge;

- (d) direct when and by whom the documents listed in paragraph (c) should be filed at the court;

- (3) The claimant must prepare a bundle including all the documents which any party wishes to make use of at the trial.

- (7) There must be excluded from the bundles prepared under this rule -
- (a) any applications or orders relating to interim payments under Part 17; and
 - (b) any offers to settle under Part 35 or notices of payment into court under Part 36, and any reference to any such payments or offers must be excised from any document contained in the bundles.
- (8) Where only a counterclaim is to be tried references in this rule to the "claimant" should be construed as reference to the defendant.
(Rule 27.6 allows the court to dispense with all or some of the requirements of this rule in simple and urgent cases.)

General rule - hearing to be in public

- 39.2
- (1) The general rule is that a hearing is to be in public.
 - (2) A hearing, or any part of it, may be in private if -
 - (a) publicity would defeat the object of the hearing;
 - (b) it involves matters relating to national security;
 - (c) a private hearing is necessary to protect the interests of any minor or patient;
 - (d) it is a hearing of an application made without notice and it would be unjust to any respondent for there to be a public hearing;

- (e) it involves uncontentious matters arising in the administration of trusts or in the administration of a deceased person's estate; or
 - (f) the court considers this to be necessary in the interests of justice.
- (3) The court may order that the identity of any party or witness must not be disclosed if it considers non-disclosure necessary in order to protect the interests of that party or witness.

Cross-examination

- 39.3 The court may limit examination, cross-examination or re-examination of any witness.

Written Submissions

- 39.4 (1) The parties may, with the consent of the judge, file written submissions-
- (a) instead of; or
 - (b) in addition to, closing speeches.
- (2) Such written submissions must be filed within 7 days of the conclusion of the trial or such shorter period as the judge may direct.

Failure of party to attend trial

- 39.5 Provided that the judge is satisfied that notice of the hearing has been served on the absent party or parties in accordance with these Rules -
- (a) if no party appears at the trial the judge may strike out the claim and any counterclaim; or
 - (b) if one or more, but not all parties appear the judge may proceed in the absence of the parties who do not appear.

Application to set aside judgment given in party's absence

- 39.6 (1) A party who was not present at a trial at which judgment was given or an order made in its absence may apply to set aside that judgment or order.

- (2) The application must be made within 14 days after the date on which the judgment or order was served on the applicant.
- (3) The application to set aside the judgment or order must be supported by evidence on affidavit showing -
 - (a) a good reason for failing to attend the hearing; and
 - (b) that it is likely that had the applicant attended some other judgment or order might have been given or made.

Adjournment of trial

- 39.7
- (1) The judge may adjourn a trial on such terms as the judge thinks just.
 - (2) The judge may only adjourn a trial to a date and time fixed by the judge or to be fixed by the registry.

- The judge and jury (if any) trying a claim may inspect any place or thing that may be relevant to any issue in the claim.

Dismissal of claim after decision on a preliminary issue

- 39.9

Impounded document

- 39.10

- (2) After the conclusion of the trial each party must obtain the return of such exhibits which were handed in by that party.
- (3) Each party must preserve exhibits returned under paragraph (2) for the period in which any appeal may take place.

 - (i) prolonged examination of documents; or
 - (ii) scientific or local investigation which cannot conveniently be carried out by the court; or
 - (c) the matters in dispute are wholly or mainly a matter of account, the court may order the claim or any issue or allegation to be tried by a referee.

Reference to referee for inquiry and report

- 40.2 The court may refer to a referee for inquiry and report any question or issue of fact arising in a claim.

Appointment of referee

- 40.3 (1) The general rule is that the appointment of a referee under rule 40.1 or 40.2 must be made at a case management conference or pre-trial review.

- (2) The referee shall be such person as -
 - (a) is agreed by the parties or,
 - (b) if they fail to agree, is selected by the court in accordance with paragraph (3).

 - (b) direct that the referee be selected in such other manner as the court may direct
- (4) The court must identify the question or issue upon which the referee is to report.
- (5) The court must decide -
 - (a) what fee is to be paid to the referee; and
 - (b) by whom.
- (6) This does not affect any decision as to the party who is ultimately to bear the referee's fee.

Conduct of reference

- 40.4
- (1) For the purpose of the inquiry the referee has the same powers as the court other than the power to commit.
 - (2) Unless the court otherwise orders the referee must adopt the simplest, least expensive and most expeditious method of conducting the reference.
 - (3) The referee may hold the trial or conduct the inquiry at any place and at any time which appears to the referee to be convenient to the parties and any witnesses.

 the referee must sign and file a certificate of such failure or refusal.
 - (5) Any party may apply to the court for an order requiring the person served with the witness summons to attend, or to be sworn or affirmed, or answer any question or produce any document as the case may be.

- (6) An application for an order under paragraph (5) may be made without notice but must be supported by evidence on affidavit.
- (7) In the case of non-attendance, the affidavit must prove -
 - (a) service of the witness summons; and
 - (b) that the person served with the witness summons was paid or offered the payments required by rule 33.5.
- (8) Such an order must be served personally on the person served with the witness summons and be endorsed with a notice in accordance with the first form in rule 53.3(b).
- (9) A person who wilfully disobeys an order made against him or her under paragraph (5) is guilty of contempt of court.
- (10) The court may order the person against whom an order is made under this rule to pay any costs resulting from -
 - (a) the failure to attend before the referee;
 - (b) the refusal to be sworn or affirm for the purposes of the inquiry; or
 - (c) the refusal to answer any lawful question or produce any document at the inquiry.

(Part 53, Section 2, deals with the procedure to apply to commit a person for contempt of court.)

Report following reference

- 40.5 (1) The report of the referee is to be made to the court.
- (2) The referee must supply a copy of the report to each party.
- (3) The referee may in his report -
 - (a) submit any question for the decision of the court; or
 - (b) make a special statement of facts from which the court may draw inferences.

Consideration of report by the court

- 40.6 (1) Upon receipt of the report of the referee, the registry must fix a date, time and place for consideration of the report by the court.
- (2) The registry must give 14 days notice to the parties of such consideration.
- (3) The court may -

“judgment debtor” means the person who is liable to enforcement under the judgment or order, even though the judgment or order is not a money judgment .

Procedure for beginning enforcement

- 43.2 (1) The general rule is that, once a judgment or order has become enforceable, the court must issue an enforcement order if the judgment creditor files the appropriate form of request.

- (2) Where any of these Rules requires permission to begin enforcement proceedings the judgment creditor must first obtain that permission.
- (3) The judgment creditor must produce with the request -
 - (a) the judgment or order which the judgment creditor seeks to enforce; and
 - (b) where required, the order giving permission to begin enforcement proceedings.

Judgment subject to condition

- 43.3 (1) A person who has a judgment or order subject to the fulfilment of a condition may not enforce the judgment or order unless -
 - (a) the condition is fulfilled; or
 - (b) the court gives permission for the judgment or order to be enforced.
- (2) Where a person has the benefit of a judgment or order subject to fulfilment of a condition and there is a failure to fulfil that condition, then unless the court otherwise orders -
 - (a) that person loses the benefit of the judgment or order; and
 - (b) any other person interested under the judgment or order may take any steps which -
 - (i) are warranted by the judgment or order; or
 - (ii) which might have been taken if the judgment or order had not been given.

Separate enforcement for costs

- 43.4 A judgment creditor who has judgment with costs may enforce the judgment and the costs separately.

Effect of order setting aside judgment or order

- 43.5 (1) The general rule is that if the court sets aside a judgment or order, any order made for the purpose of enforcing it ceases to have effect.
- (2) The court may however direct that an order remains in force.

Court's powers where person ordered to do act fails to comply

- 43.6 (1) Where -
- (a) the court orders a party to do an act; but
 - (b) that party does not do it,

- may do the act.
- (2) The court may order the judgment debtor to pay the costs and expenses of the person who does the act.

Judgment for sum in foreign currency

- 43.7 (1) This rule has effect where the court gives judgment for a sum expressed in a currency of a country other than Jamaica.
- (2) The judgment creditor must when commencing enforcement proceedings file a certificate stating the Bank of Jamaica weighted average selling rate for the unit of foreign currency in which the judgment is expressed at the close of business on the previous business day.

Enforcement by or against person who is not a party

- 43.8 (1) A judgment or order in favour of a person who is not a party may be enforced in the same way as a judgment or order in favour of a party.
- (2) A judgment or order against a person who is not a party may be enforced in the same way as a judgment or order against a party.

Enforcement against Partnership

- 43.9 (1) This rule has effect where the court gives a judgment or makes an order against a firm or partnership.
- (2) A judgment creditor may enforce the judgment or order against -
- (a) any of the firm's property; or
 - (b) any person who -
 - (i) has acknowledged service as a partner in the firm;
 - (ii) has admitted in a statement of case to being a partner in the firm;

- (iii) was adjudged by the court to be a partner; or
 - (iv) was served within the jurisdiction or, with the permission of the court under Part 7, out of the jurisdiction with the claim form as a partner.
- (3) In a case to which paragraph (2) does not apply the judgment creditor may issue enforcement proceedings against a person whom it claims to be a partner if it has the court's permission to do so.
- (4) Notice of an application for permission must be served on the person against whom the judgment creditor seeks to enforce judgment and must be supported by evidence on affidavit.
- (5) A judgment or order given or made -
 - (a) on a claim by or against a firm against or by a member of the firm; or
 - (b) on a claim by another firm against a firm where the two firms have one or more partners in common, may not be enforced without the permission of the court.

Enforcement of awards, etc., made by outside bodies

- 43.10
- (1) This rule has effect -
 - (a) as to the enforcement of an award not made by the court but which is enforceable by virtue of a statutory provision as if it were an order of the court; and
 - (b) as to the registration of such an award so that it may be enforceable as if it were an order of the court.
 - (2) In this rule -
 - “award” means the award, order or decision which it is sought to enforce; and
 - “outside body” means any authority other than the court.
 - (3) The general rule is that an application -
 - (a) for permission to enforce an award; or
 - (b) to register an award, may be made without notice but must be supported by evidence on affidavit.
 - (4) The general rule does not apply where a rule or statutory provision requires notice to be given.

 - (a) exhibit to the affidavit the award or a copy of it;
 - (b) if the award is for the payment of money, certify the amount

- remaining due to the applicant; and

Execution or signing of document or instrument

- 43.11 (1) This rule applies where the court -
- (a) has made a judgment or order for -
 - (i) the execution or signature of a document; or
 - (ii) the endorsement of a negotiable instrument; or
 - (b) has ordered that land be conveyed or transferred by one person to another,
- and the person ordered to execute the document, indorse the negotiable instrument or convey or transfer the property fails or neglects to do so.
- (2) Any party interested in having the document or transfer executed or instrument endorsed may prepare a document or instrument in accordance with the terms of the judgment or order and tender the same to the court for execution or endorsement.
 - (3) The signature of such document or instrument by a judge or registrar has the same effect as the execution, signature or endorsement by the person ordered to execute or endorse the document or instrument.

- (3) A writ of possession may include provision for enforcing payment of any money ordered to be paid.

Enforcement of judgments and orders for delivery of goods

- 45.5
- (1) The ways in which an order for delivery of goods may be enforced depend on whether or not the judgment or order gives the judgment debtor the choice of paying the assessed value of the goods.

under Part 53.

- 45.7 (1) Where the court -

- (2) In such cases the order may be enforced by committal under Part 53.
- (3) The Court may commit the judgment debtor for a period of up to one year or until the judgment or order is satisfied whichever may first occur.

- (4) Imprisonment under this rule does not operate to satisfy the debt.
- (5) A person imprisoned under this rule must be discharged from custody upon a certificate that the judgment debt and costs have been satisfied.

- (2) The judgment creditor may issue an order for the seizure and sale of the goods for the purpose of recovering the whole of the amount outstanding under the judgment and not merely the instalment(s) in arrear.

No writ of execution for goods or payment of assessed value unless court has assessed value.

 - (a) the sale has been advertised in at least one newspaper of daily circulation in the area in which the goods were seized; and
 - (b) (except in the case of goods of a perishable nature), not less than five days have elapsed from the date of seizure.
 - (4) However, the judgment creditor may apply to the court to direct an earlier sale.
 - (5) Until sale the goods seized must be deposited by the bailiff in some fit place or may remain in the custody of any fit person he shall put in possession of such goods.
 - (6) The bailiff executing the order must seize and take any money or bank notes, cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialities or guarantees for money and shall hold the same as security for the amount directed to be levied
 - (7) The judgment creditor may sue in the name of the judgment debtor or in the name of any person in whose name the judgment debtor might have sued, for the recovery of the sum, or sums secured or made payable by any such bill of exchange or other security.

- (2) The application must be supported by evidence on affidavit.
- (3) The bailiff must prepare a list setting out the names and addresses of every person on whose behalf any other order for seizure and sale of goods has been issued and delivered to the bailiff and must send a copy of the list to the judgment creditor unless the application has been made by the bailiff.
- (4) The applicant must give not less than 5 days notice of the application to the judgment debtor and every other person named on the list prepared under paragraph (3).
- (5) All persons served under paragraph (4) may attend and be heard on the application.

- (a) an order requiring that person; or
 - (b) an undertaking by that person, to do an act-
 - (i) within a specified time;
 - (ii) by a specific date; or
- not to do an act.

 - (2) Where a judgment or order does not specify the time or date by which an act must be done, the court may by order specify a time or date by which it must be done.
 - (3) The time by which the act must be done may be specified by reference to the day on which the order is served on the judgment debtor.
 - (4) An application for an order under this rule may be made without notice but the court may direct that notice be given to the judgment debtor.
 - (5) Any order made under this rule must be served in the manner required by rule 53.3 (in the case of an individual judgment creditor) or 53.4 (enforcement against an officer of a body corporate).

When committal order or confiscation of assets order may be made

- 53.3 Subject to rule 53.5, the court may not make a committal order or a confiscation of assets order unless-

- (a) the order requiring the judgment debtor to do an act within a specified time or not to do an act has been served personally on the judgment debtor;
- (b) at the time that order was served it was endorsed with a notice in the following terms:
“NOTICE: If you fail to comply with the terms of this order you will be in contempt of court and may be liable to be imprisoned or to have your assets confiscated.”, or, in the case of an order served on a body corporate, in the following terms:
“NOTICE: If you fail to comply with the terms of this order you will be in contempt of court and may be liable to have your assets confiscated.”; and
- (c) where the order requires the judgment debtor to do an act within a specified time or by a specified date, it was served in sufficient time to give the judgment debtor a reasonable opportunity to do the act before the expiration of that time or before that date.

Committal order or confiscation of assets order against officer of body corporate

Subject to rule 53.5, the court may not make a committal order or a confiscation of assets order against an officer of a body corporate unless -

- (a) a copy of the order requiring the judgment debtor to do an act within a specified time or to not to do an act has been served personally on the officer against whom the order is sought;
- (b) at the time that order was served it was endorsed with a notice in the following terms:

- (c) Where the order required the judgment debtor or do an act within a specified time or by a specified date, it was served in sufficient time to give the judgment debtor a reasonable opportunity to do the act before the expiration of that time or before that date.

- 53.5 (1) This rule applies where the judgment or order has not been served.
- (2) Where the order required the judgment debtor not to do an act, the court may make a committal order or confiscation of assets order only if it is satisfied that the person against whom the order is to be enforced has had notice of the terms of the order by -
- (a) being present when the order was made; or
 - (b) being notified of the terms of the order by post, telephone, FAX or otherwise.
- (3) The court may make an order dispensing with service of the judgment or order under rules 53.3 or 53.4 if it thinks it just to do so.

- (3) The applicant must prove -
- (a) service of the order endorsed with the notice under rule 53.3(b) or rule 53.4(b);
 - (b) if the order required the judgment debtor not to do an act, that the person against whom it is sought to enforce the order had notice of the terms of the order under rule 53.5; or

Service of notice of hearing

- (1) An application under this Section must be made -
 - (a) in the case of contempt committed within proceedings in the court, by application under Part 11; or setting out the grounds of the application and supported, in each case, by evidence on affidavit.

Judicial Review - hearing of application for leave

- 56.4
- (1) An application for leave to make a claim for judicial review must be considered forthwith by a judge of the Court.
 - (2) The judge may give leave without hearing the applicant.

- (3) However, if -
 - (a) the judge is minded to refuse the application;
 - (b) the application includes a claim for immediate interim relief; or
 - (c) it appears that a hearing is desirable in the interests of justice,
- (17/2/2003) the judge must direct that a hearing be fixed.
- (4) The judge may direct that notice of the hearing be given to the respondent or the Attorney General.
- (5) Where the application relates to any judgment, order, conviction or other proceedings which are subject to appeal, the judge may adjourn consideration of the application to a date after the appeal has been determined.
- (6) The judge may allow the application to be amended.
- (7) Where the applicant seeks an order for certiorari relating to any matter in respect of which there is a right of appeal subject to a time limit, the judge may adjourn the application for leave until the appeal is determined or the time for appealing has expired.
- (8) The judge may grant leave on such conditions or terms as appear just.
- (9) Where the application is for an order (or writ) of prohibition or certiorari, the judge must direct whether or not the grant of leave operates as a stay of the proceedings.
- (10) The judge may grant such interim relief as appears just.
- (11) On granting leave the judge must direct when the first hearing or, in case of urgency, the full hearing of the claim for a judicial review should take place.
- (12) Leave is conditional on the applicant making a claim for judicial review within 14 days of receipt of the order granting leave.
- (18/9/2006)

Where leave refused or granted on terms

- 56.5 (1) Where the application for leave is refused by the judge or is granted on terms (other than under rule 56.4(12)), the applicant may renew it by applying -
 - (a) in any matter involving the liberty of the subject or in any criminal cause or matter, to a full court; or
 - (b) in any other case to a single judge sitting in open court.
- (2) A single judge may refer the application to a full court.

- (3) No application not involving the liberty of the subject or a criminal cause or matter may be renewed after a hearing.
- (4) An applicant may renew his application by lodging in the registry notice of his intention.
- (5) The notice under paragraph (4) must be lodged within 10 days of service of the judge's refusal or conditional leave on the applicant.
- (6) The court hearing an application for leave may permit the application under rule 56.3 to be amended.

Delay

- 56.6
- (1) An application for leave to apply for judicial review must be made promptly and in any event within three months from the date when grounds for the application first arose
 - (2) However the court may extend the time if good reason for doing so is shown.
 - (3) Where leave is sought to apply for an order of certiorari in respect of any judgment, order, conviction or other proceeding, the date on which grounds for the application first arose shall be taken to be the date of that judgment, order, conviction or proceedings.
- (18/9/2006)
- (4) Paragraphs (1) to (3) are without prejudice to any time limits imposed by any enactment.
 - (5) When considering whether to refuse leave or to grant relief because of delay the judge must consider whether the granting of leave or relief would be likely to -
 - (a) cause substantial hardship to or substantially prejudice the rights of any person; or
 - (b) be detrimental to good administration.

Proceedings by way of claim which should be application for administrative order

- 56.7
- (1) This rule applies where a claimant issues a claim for damages or other relief other than an administrative order but where the facts supporting such claim are such that the only or main relief is an administrative order.
 - (2) The court may at any stage direct that the claim is to proceed by way of an application for an administrative order.
 - (3) Where the appropriate administrative order would be for judicial review the court may give leave for the matter to proceed as if an application had been made under rule 56.3.

- (4) Where the court makes an order under paragraph (2) it must give such directions as are necessary to enable the claim to proceed under this Part.

Constitution of court

- 56.8 (1) In any matter involving the liberty of the subject and in any criminal cause or matter an application for judicial review for which leave has been granted must be made to a full court.
- (2) Any other application may be heard by a single judge in open court unless the court directs that it be heard -
- (a) by a judge in chambers; or
 - (b) by a full court.

How to make an application for administrative order

- 56.9 (1) An application for an administrative order must be made by a fixed date claim in form 2 identifying whether the application is for -
- (a) judicial review;
 - (b) relief under the Constitution;
 - (c) a declaration; or
 - (d) some other administrative order (naming it),
- and must identify the nature of any relief sought.
- (2) The claimant must file with the claim form evidence on affidavit.
- (3) The affidavit must state -
- (a) the name, address and description of the claimant and the defendant;
 - (b) the nature of the relief sought identifying -
 - (i) any interim relief sought; and
 - (ii) whether the claimant seeks damages, restitution, recovery of any sum due or alleged to be due or an order for the return of property, setting out the facts on which such claim is based and, where practicable, specifying the amount of any money claimed;
 - (c) in the case of a claim under the Constitution, setting out the provision of the Constitution which the claimant alleges has been, is being or is likely to be breached;
 - (d) the grounds on which such relief is sought;

- (e) the facts on which the claim is based;
 - (f) the claimant's address for service; and
 - (g) giving the names and addresses of all defendants to the claim.
- (4) The general rule is that the affidavit must be made by the claimant or where the claimant is not an individual by an appropriate officer of the body making the claim.
 - (5) Where the claimant is unable to make the affidavit it may be made by some other person on the claimant's behalf but must state why the claimant is unable to make the affidavit.
 - (6) On issuing the claim form the registry must fix a date for a first hearing which must be endorsed on the claim form.
 - (7) The general rule is that the first hearing must take place no later than 4 weeks after the date of issue of the claim.
 - (8) However, any party may apply to a judge in chambers for that date to be brought forward or for an early date to be fixed for the hearing of the application for an administrative order.
 - (9) The application may be without notice but must be supported by evidence on affidavit.

Joinder of claims for other relief

- 56.10 (1) The general rule is that, where not prohibited by substantive law, an applicant may include in an application for an administrative order a claim for any other relief or remedy that -
- (a) arises out of; or
 - (b) is related or connected to,
- the subject matter of an application for an administrative order.
- (2) In particular the court may award -
- (a) damages;
 - (b) restitution; or
 - (c) an order for return of property,
- to the claimant on a claim for Judicial Review or for relief under the constitution if -
- (i) the claimant has included in the claim form a claim for any such remedy arising out of any matter to which the claim for an administrative order relates; or
 - (ii) the facts set out in the claimant's affidavit or statement of case justify the granting of such

- remedy or relief; and
 - (iii) the court is satisfied that, at the time when the application was made the claimant could have issued a claim for such remedy.
 - (3) The court may however at any stage -
 - (a) direct that any claim for other relief be dealt with separately from the claim for an administrative order; or
 - (b) direct that the whole application be dealt with as a claim and give appropriate directions under Parts 26 and 27; and
 - (c) in either case, make any order it considers just as to costs that have been wasted because of the unreasonable use of the procedure under this Part.

Service of claim form for administrative order

- 56.11
- (1) The claim form and the affidavit in support must be served on all persons directly affected not less than 14 days before the date fixed for the first hearing.
 - (2) Where the application -
 - (a) relates to any proceedings in or before a court; and
 - (b) has the object either -
 - (i) to compel the court or an officer of the court to do any act relating to; or
 - (ii) to quash those proceedings, the claim form and affidavit in support must be served on the clerk or registrar of the court and on the judge if any objection is taken to the conduct of the judge.
 - (3) A claim form relating to an application for relief under the Constitution must be served on the Attorney General.
 - (4) Where leave has been given to make a claim for judicial review the claimant must also serve a copy of -
 - (a) the application for leave;
 - (b) the affidavit in support; and
 - (c) the order giving leave.
 - (5) The claimant must file at the registry not less than 7 days before the date fixed for the first hearing an affidavit which -
 - (a) gives the names and addresses of all defendants who have been served with the claim;

- (b) states the date and place of service on each such defendant;
 - (c) where applicable, states when the claim form was served on the Attorney General; and
 - (d) if any defendant has not been served, states that fact and the reason for it.
- (7) Where the judge considers that any person who should have been served has not been served, the judge may adjourn the first hearing to a fixed date and give directions for service.
- (Part 5 deals generally with the service of claims.)

Evidence in answer

- 56.12 Any evidence filed in answer to a claim for an administrative order must be by affidavit but the provisions of Part 10 (defence) apply to such affidavit.

First hearing

- 56.13 (1) At the first hearing the judge must give any directions that may be required to ensure the expeditious and just trial of the claim and the provisions of Parts 25 to 27 of these Rules apply.
- (2) In particular the judge may -
- (a) make orders for -
 - (i) witness statements or affidavits to be served;
 - (ii) cross-examination of witnesses;
 - (iii) disclosure of documents; and
 - (iv) service of skeleton arguments;
 - (b) allow the claimant to -
 - (i) amend any claim for an administrative order;
 - (ii) substitute another form of application for that originally made; or
 - (iii) add or substitute a claim for relief other than an administrative order;
 - (c) allow any person or body appearing to have sufficient interest in the subject matter of the claim to be heard whether or not served with the claim form;
 - (d) direct whether any person or body having such interest-
 - (i) is to make submissions by way of written brief; or
 - (ii) may make oral submissions at the hearing; and
 - (e) direct that claims by one or more persons or bodies or against one or more persons in respect of the same office made on the same grounds be consolidated or heard together.

Procedural Applications

- 56.14 Wherever practicable any procedural application during a claim for an administrative order must be made to the judge who dealt with the first hearing unless that judge orders otherwise.

Hearing of application for administrative order

- 56.15 (1) At the hearing of the application the court may allow any person who or body which appears to have a sufficient interest in the subject matter of the claim to make submissions whether or not served with the claim form.
- (2) Such a person or body must make submissions by way of a written brief unless the court orders otherwise.
- (3) The court may grant any relief that appears to be justified by the facts proved before the court whether or not such relief should have been sought by an application for an administrative order.
- (4) The court may, however, make such orders as to costs as appear to the court to be just including a wasted costs order.
- (5) The general rule is that no order for costs may be made against an applicant for an administrative order unless the court considers that the applicant has acted unreasonably in making the application or in the conduct of the application.
- (Part 64 deals with the court's general discretion as to the award of costs, rules 64.13 and 64.14 deal with wasted costs orders.)

Special provisions relating to orders for judicial review

- 56.16 (1) Where the claimant seeks an order or writ of certiorari to remove any proceedings for the purpose of quashing them, the claimant may not question the validity of any order, warrant, commitment, conviction or record unless -
- (a) before the trial the claimant has lodged with the registry a copy of the order, etc., verified by affidavit; or
- (b) can account for the failure to do so to the satisfaction of the court.

- (2) Where the claim is for an order or writ of certiorari, the court may if satisfied that there are reasons for quashing the decision to which the claim relates -
- (a) direct that the proceedings be quashed on their removal to the court; and
 - (b) may in addition remit the matter to the court, tribunal or authority concerned with a direction to reconsider it in accordance with the findings of the court

Orders about costs

64.3 The court’s powers to make orders about costs include power to make orders requiring any person to pay the costs of another person arising out of or related to all or any part of any proceedings.

Costs where there is an appeal

64.4 The court hearing an appeal may make orders about the costs of the proceedings giving rise to the appeal as well as the costs of the appeal.

- party or person except by virtue of -
 - (a) an order of the court;
 - (b) a provision of these Rules; or the costs of which are costs in the claim (unless the court makes some other order).

 (Part 27 deals with case management conferences and Part 38 with pre-trial reviews.)

- (6) Where the court would otherwise consider making an order under paragraphs (5)(c) to (f), it must instead, if practicable, make an order under paragraph (5)(a) or (b).
- (7) Where the court has ordered a party to pay costs, it may make an interim order requiring the paying party to pay a fixed sum on account by a date stated in the order before the costs are taxed.
- (8) Where a party entitled to costs is also liable to pay costs the registrar may tax the costs which that party is liable to pay and either -
 - (a) set off the amount taxed against the amount the party is entitled to be paid and direct that party to pay any balance; or
 - (b) delay the issue of a certificate for the costs to which the party is entitled until the amount which that party is liable to pay is paid.

Special costs certificates

- 64.12 (1) When making an order as to the costs of an application in chambers the court may grant a “special costs certificate”.

Scope of this Part

- 65.1 This Part deals with the ways in which any costs awarded by the court are quantified.

Section 1

Quantification - General

Ways in which costs are quantified

- 65.2 Costs of proceedings under these Rules are to be quantified as follows -
- (a) where rules 65.4, 65.5 and 65.6 (fixed costs) apply, in accordance with the provisions of those rules.
 - (b) in all other cases if, having regard to rule 64.6, the court orders a party to pay all or any part of the costs of another party, the costs are to be taxed in accordance with rule 65.13 unless -
 - (i) those costs have been summarily assessed under rule 65.8 or 65.9; or
 - (ii) the receiving party has elected to receive basic costs under rule 65.10.

Fixed costs

- 65.3 Rules 65.4, 65.5 and 65.6 deal with fixed costs.

When defendant only liable for fixed commencement costs

- 65.4 (1) Where -
- (a) the only claim is for a specified sum of money; and
 - (b) the defendant pays to the claimant the money claimed within 14 days after service of particulars of claim on him, together with the fixed commencement costs stated in the claim form,
- the defendant is not liable for any further costs unless the court orders otherwise.
- (2) Where -
- (a) the claimant gives notice of acceptance of a payment into court in satisfaction of the whole claim;
 - (b) the only claim is for a specified sum of money; and
 - (c) the defendant made the payment into court within 14 days after service of the particulars of claim on him, together with the fixed commencement costs stated in the claim form,
- the defendant is not liable for any further costs unless the court orders otherwise.
- (3) The fixed commencement costs are set out in Table 1 of Appendix A to this Part.

Costs on entry of judgment

- 65.5 Where -
- (a) the claimant has claimed fixed commencement costs under rule 65.4;
- and
- (b) judgment is entered in the circumstances specified in Table 2 of Appendix A to this Part,
- the amount to be included in the judgment in respect of the claimant's attorney-at-law's costs is the aggregate of -
- (i) the fixed commencement costs; and
 - (ii) the relevant amount shown in Table 2 in Appendix A to this Part.

Costs of enforcement proceedings

- 65.6 Unless the court has
- (a) summarily assessed the costs under rule 65.9; or
 - (b) directed that the costs be taxed,

the costs of enforcement proceedings are to be determined in accordance with Table 3 of Appendix A to this Part.

Procedure for quantifying costs

- 65.7 (1) Where the court orders a party to pay costs (other than fixed costs) to another party it may either -
- (a) make a summary assessment of the costs under rule 65.9; or
 - (b) order that the costs be taxed by the registrar, unless any rule, practice direction or enactment provides otherwise.
- (2) On making an order for costs to be taxed, the court may order that the paying party pay a specified sum on account of costs by such date as the court may order.

Assessed costs - procedural applications and enforcement

- 65.8 (1) On determining any application except at a case management conference, pre-trial review or the trial, the court must decide which party, if any, should pay the costs of that application, and may
- (a) summarily assess the amount of such costs in accordance with rule 65.9; and
 - (b) direct when such costs are to be paid.
- (2) In deciding what party, if any, should pay the costs of the application the general rule is that the unsuccessful party must pay the costs of the successful party.
- (3) The court must however take account of all the circumstances including the factors set out in rule 64.6(4) but where the application is -
- (a) one that could reasonably have been made at a case management conference or pre-trial review;
 - (b) to extend the time specified for doing any act under these Rules or an order or direction of the court;
 - (c) to amend a statement of case; or
 - (d) for relief under rule 26.8 (relief from sanctions),
- the court must order the applicant to pay the costs of the respondent unless there are special circumstances.
(Rule 27.12(5)(b) makes special provision for the costs of a listing appointment.)

Summary Assessment of costs

- 65.9 (1) In summarily assessing the amount of costs to be paid by any party the court must take into account any representations as to the time that was reasonably spent in making the application and preparing for and attending the hearing or otherwise dealing with the matter in respect of which costs are to be assessed and must allow such sum as it considers fair and reasonable.
- (2) A party seeking assessed costs must supply to the court and to all other parties a brief statement showing -
- (a) the disbursements incurred; and
 - (b) the basis on which that party's attorney-at-law's costs are calculated.
- (3) In summarily assessing the costs the court may take into account the basic costs set out in Appendix B to this Part.

Basic Costs

- 65.10 (1) Where a court has made an order for costs in favour of a party and has not summarily assessed those costs, the receiving party may, instead of seeking a taxation of those costs, elect to recover basic costs in accordance with this rule.
- (2) A receiving party who elects to recover basic costs may file a certificate of costs certifying how much costs are payable in accordance with Appendix B to this Part.
- (3) The certificate may include General Consumption Tax where recoverable.
- (4) The registrar, if satisfied that the certificate includes only such items as are appropriate must sign the certificate.
- (5) If the registrar is not satisfied in accordance with paragraph (4), the registrar must direct that the receiving party either -
- (a) attend before the registrar; or
 - (b) commence taxation proceedings in accordance with rule 65.18
- (6) The paying party may, within 14 days of service of the certificate of costs under this rule, apply to the registrar to amend the certificate stating the grounds for such amendment.
- (7) The registrar may direct that -
- (a) receiving and paying parties attend before the registrar in which case the certificate of costs may not be enforced until confirmed or amended by the registrar; or

- (b) the receiving party commence taxation proceedings, in which case the registrar must revoke the certificate of costs.

Attendance of more than two attorneys-at-law at trial

- 65.11 On assessing the amount of basic costs under rule 65.10 or taxing a bill of costs under rule 65.13 no fee may be allowed for the attendance of more than -
- (i) one attorney-at-law on the hearing of an application; or
 - (ii) two attorneys-at-law at the trial,
- unless -
- (a) the court has so directed under rule 64.12(3) when making the order for costs ; or
 - (b) the registrar is satisfied that it would be reasonable, having regard to the matters set out in rule 65.17, to allow such fee.

Time for complying with an order for costs

- 65.12 A party must comply with an order for the payment of costs within 14 days of -
- (a) the date of the judgment or order if it states the amount of those costs; or
 - (b) if the amount of those costs (or part of them) is determined in accordance with rule 65.10 (basic costs) or rule 65.13 (taxation - general), the date of the certificate which states the amount.

Taxation - general

- 65.13 (1) This rule applies where an order for costs has been made and -
- (a) such costs have not been summarily assessed under rule 65.8 or 9; and
 - (b) the receiving party's attorney-at-law has not elected to receive basic costs under rule 65.10.
- (2) Such costs must be taxed in accordance with Section 2 of this Part.

Section 2

Taxation Procedure

Scope of this Section

- 65.14 (1) This Section deals with -
- (a) the procedure by which a bill of costs is taxed;
 - (b) the procedure for appealing the taxation of a bill of costs; and
 - (c) the issue of costs certificates
- (2) On a taxation of an attorney-at-law's costs payable by his or her client the expression -
- “receiving party” means the attorney-at-law; and
- “paying party” means the client.

Time when taxation may be carried out

- 65.15 The general rule is that the costs of any proceedings or any part of the proceedings are not to be taxed until the conclusion of the proceedings but the court may order them to be taxed immediately.

No stay of taxation where there is an appeal

- 65.16 Taxation is not stayed pending an appeal unless the court or the Court of Appeal so orders.

Basis of Quantification

- 65.17 (1) Where the court has a discretion as to the amount of costs to be allowed to a party, the sum to be allowed is the amount -
- (a) that the court deems to be reasonable; and
 - (b) which appears to the court to be fair both to the person paying and the person receiving such costs.
- (2) Where the costs to be taxed are claimed by an attorney-at-law from his or her client, these costs are to be presumed -
- (a) to have been reasonably incurred if they were incurred with the express or implied consent of the client;
 - (b) to be reasonable in amount if their amount was expressly or impliedly approved by the client; and
 - (c) to have been unreasonably incurred if -

- (i) they are of an unusual nature or amount; and
 - (ii) the attorney-at-law did not inform his or her client that the client might not recover them all from the other party.
- (3) In deciding what would be reasonable the court must take into account all the circumstances, including -
 - (a) any orders that have already been made;
 - (b) the conduct of the parties before as well as during the proceedings;
 - (c) the importance of the matter to the parties;
 - (d) the time reasonably spent on the matter;
 - (e) whether the cause or matter or the particular item is appropriate for a senior attorney-at-law or an attorney-at-law of specialised knowledge;
 - (f) the degree of responsibility accepted by the attorney-at-law;
 - (g) the care, speed and economy with which the matter was prepared;
 - (h) the novelty, weight and complexity of the matter; and
 - (i) in the case of costs charged by an attorney-at-law to his or her client -
 - (i) subject to section 21 of the Legal Profession Act, any agreement that may have been made as to the basis of charging;
 - (ii) any agreement about the seniority of attorney-at-law who should carry out the work;
 - (iii) whether the attorney-at-law advised the client and took the client's instructions before taking any unusual step or one which was unusually expensive having regard to the nature of the matter.
- (4) The registrar on taxation may not allow an attorney-at-law less than the rates set out in Appendix B.
- (5) In this rule the expression "court" includes a registrar.

Commencement of taxation proceedings

- 65.18 (1) Taxation proceedings are commenced by the receiving party -
- (a) filing the bill of costs at the registry; and
 - (b) serving a copy of the bill on the paying party.

- (2) The bill of costs must be filed and served not more than three months after the date of the order or event entitling the receiving party to costs.
- (3) A bill of costs need not be in any particular form but must contain a general description of the work done in relation to which the costs are claimed and must -
 - (a) contain sufficient detail and information to justify the amount being claimed by the receiving party;
 - (b) indicate the total amount being claimed by the receiving party; and
 - (c) in the event that it contains a claim for General Consumption Tax, indicate the GCT reference number of the receiving party.
- (4) A bill of costs may -
 - (a) indicate the time spent by the receiving party's attorney(s)-at-law on each item, or category of work and the hourly rate claimed; or
 - (b) indicate that the total sum claimed in the bill of costs or any part of the bill is a stated multiple of a sum indicated in Appendix B to this Part on the basis of one or more of the factors set out in rule 65.17(3).
- (5) If a bill of costs contains more detail than is necessary, the registrar may disallow all or part of the costs of taxation that might otherwise be awarded to the receiving party.
- (6) The bill of costs served on the paying party or parties must contain or have attached to it a notice notifying the paying party of the need to serve points of dispute under rule 65.20 and the consequences of not doing so.

Consequences of failure to commence taxation proceedings in time

- 65.19
- (1) Where the receiving party fails to commence taxation proceedings in accordance with rule 65.18(2) the paying party may apply for an order requiring the receiving party to commence taxation proceedings within such time as the registrar may specify.
 - (2) On an application under paragraph (1), the registrar may direct that, unless the receiving party commences taxation proceedings by a date specified by the registrar, all or part of the costs to which the receiving party would otherwise be entitled will be disallowed.

- (3) Whether or not an order is made under paragraph (2), the court may -
 - (a) disallow all or part of statutory interest on the costs in respect of any period of delay;
 - (b) disallow all or part of the costs of taxation that might otherwise be awarded to the receiving party.

Points of dispute and consequence of not serving

- 65.20
- (1) The paying party and any other party to the taxation proceedings may dispute any item in the bill of costs by filing points of dispute and serving a copy on -
 - (a) the receiving party; and
 - (b) every other party to the taxation proceedings.
 - (2) Points of dispute must -
 - (a) identify each item in the bill of costs which is disputed;
 - (b) state the reasons for the objection; and
 - (c) state the amount (if any) which the party serving the points of dispute considers should be allowed on taxation in respect of that item.
 - (3) The period for filing and serving points of dispute is 28 days after the date of service of the copy bill in accordance with paragraph (1).
 - (4) If a party files and serves points of dispute after the period set out in paragraph (3), that party may not be heard further in the taxation proceedings unless the registrar gives permission.
 - (5) The receiving party may file a request for a default costs certificate if -
 - (a) the period set out in paragraph (3) for serving points of dispute has expired; and
 - (b) no points of dispute have been served on the receiving party.
 - (6) If any party (including the paying party) serves points of dispute before the issue of a default costs certificate the registrar may not issue the default costs certificate.

How to obtain default costs certificate

- 65.21
- (1) A receiving party who is permitted by rule 65.20 to obtain a default costs certificate does so by filing -
 - (a) an affidavit proving -
 - (i) service of the copy bill of costs; and
 - (ii) that no points of dispute have been received by

- the receiving party; and
 - (b) a draft default costs certificate in form 26 for signature by the registrar.
- (2) The registrar must then sign the default costs certificate.
- (3) A default costs certificate will include an order to pay the costs to which it relates.

Setting aside default costs certificate

- 65.22
- (1) The paying party may apply to set aside the default costs certificate.
 - (2) The registrar must set aside a default costs certificate if the receiving party was not entitled to it.

Taxation hearing

- 65.23
- (1) Where points of dispute are served, the receiving party may apply for a taxation hearing by filing a notice of taxation.
 - (2) The receiving party must do so within three months of the service of the points of dispute.
 - (3) Where the receiving party fails to do so -
 - (a) the paying party may apply for an order that unless the receiving party applies for a taxation hearing by a specified date the registrar may disallow all or part of the costs which the receiving party would otherwise be entitled to receive; and
 - (b) in any event the registrar may disallow all or part of -
 - (i) the costs of taxation; and
 - (ii) any interest that the receiving party would otherwise have been entitled to receive on the costs.
 - (4) The receiving party must serve notice of the taxation hearing on each paying party who has served points of dispute under rule 65.21 not less than 14 days before the taxation hearing.
 - (5) No person other than -
 - (a) the receiving party; and
 - (b) a party who has served points of dispute under rule 65.21, may be heard at the taxation hearing unless the registrar gives permission.
 - (6) Only items specified in the points of dispute may be raised at the taxation hearing unless the registrar gives permission.

Interim costs certificates

- 65.24 (1) The registrar may at any time after the receiving party has applied for a taxation hearing -
- (a) issue an interim costs certificate in form 27 for such sum as the registrar considers appropriate;
 - (b) amend or cancel an interim costs certificate.
- (2) An interim costs certificate will include an order to pay the sum certified in the certificate.
- (3) The registrar may order the sum certified in the certificate to be paid into court.

Final costs certificates

- 65.25 (1) The receiving party must file a final costs certificate in form 28 at the time of or within 14 days after the end of the taxation hearing.
- (2) If the final costs certificate is in order, the registrar must sign and issue it to the receiving party.
- (3) Paragraph (2) is subject to any order made by the court that a certificate is not to be issued until other costs have been paid.
- (4) A final costs certificate will include an order to pay the costs to which it relates.

Appeals against taxation

Right to appeal

- 65.26 The -
- (a) receiving party; and
 - (b) any paying party who has served points of dispute,
- may appeal against a decision of a registrar in the taxation proceedings.

Court to hear appeal

- 65.27 (1) An appeal against a decision of a registrar on taxation is to a judge of the court.
- (2) The Chief Justice may from time to time nominate a judge of the court to hear appeals against taxation.

Appeal procedure

- 65.28
- (1) The appellant must file an appeal notice in form 29 within 14 days after the date of the decision the appellant wishes to appeal against.
 - (2) The appeal notice must -
 - (a) specify each item in the taxation which is appealed; and
 - (b) state the grounds of the appeal in respect of each item
 - (2) On receipt of the appeal notice, the registry must fix a date, time and place for the hearing of the appeal.
 - (3) The appellant must forthwith serve a copy of the appeal notice showing the date, time and place of the hearing of the appeal on all other parties to the taxation.
 - (4) At least 14 days notice of the hearing of the appeal must be given

Powers of the court on appeal

- 65.29
- On an appeal from a registrar the judge will -
- (a) re-hear the proceedings which gave rise to the decision appealed against so far as is necessary to deal with the items specified in the appeal notice; and
